Gale, Rising Water Renewing Threats To Britain's Farms

Troops and Civilians Rushed to Dikes Where Thousands of Acres in Danger

LONDON, MARCH, 25 (AP).—Wind-lashed waters threatened new damage tonight to levees guarding the rich Fenland farm area of Eastern England, where floods have already caused what one Cabinet Minister described as a "disaster of the first magnitude," bound to affect the British food outlook.

Hundreds of troops and civilian workmen were rushed to danger points in the dikes holding back the tidal New Bedford River, where a breach would loose more flood waters on thousands of acres already inundated.

Agriculture Minister Williams told the Commons that the situation in the Fens "can only be described as a disaster of the first magnitude, which cannot fail to have the most serious effect on home food production this year."

Economic observers said another American loan might be necessary if the preset ration standard is to be maintained.

Unofficial estimates have placed agricultural losses in the flood zones at £12,000,000 ($48,000,000).

Meanwhile York, a city of 100,000 in the northern industrial region, was virtually cut in two by flood waters. Delivery of relief supplies in York, in Northeast England and the Midlands was a task for 1,000 troops and 3,000 prisoners of war.

An aftermath of the Thames flood paralyzed a major portion of London's subway system today. Debris deposited by the flood clogged intakes supplying water to condensers at one of the principal power stations, shutting off current to about 40 miles of subway track.

Normal schedules were resumed tonight.

Slight improvement was noted in most flooded areas, but additional rain was forecast. A blizzard swept the northern half of Cumberland in Northeast England, and more heavy snows fell in the Welsh hills, threatening further delay in farming operations.

Shop Again Held Up By Bandit

Store in Esquimalt Robbed Second Time

For the second time in three weeks Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rogers, proprietors of the Half-Way Confectionery, 819 Esquimalt Road, were robbed last night.

Mr. Rogers was in the front of the store at 8:30 p.m. when a lone masked bandit entered. He was wearing a dirty green bandanna over his face, Mr. Rogers said.

"Hand over your money!" he demanded. Mrs. Rogers, who was in the back part of the store at the time, called to her husband: "Don't give it to him. Make him take it."

Then the thug, who was described as youthful by Mr. Rogers, scooped up a number of bills.

"I was going to throw this at him," Mr. Rogers said, indicating a heavy jar," but he kept one hand in his coat pocket ominously and threatened to shoot."

"Don't move or I'll let you have it!" the bandit said, then backed out of the store and made his escape down Esquimalt Road.

The Rogers were held up and robbed by two armed bandits on March 1.

Bevin Talks With Stalin On Anglo-Russian Pact

MOSCOW, March 24 (AP).—Foreign Secretary Bevin conferred tonight with Prime Minister Stalin, and it was authoritatively learned that Bevin urged the strengthening and extension of the Anglo-Russian Alliance against German aggression.

Bevin also was understood to be ready to discuss with Stalin a United States proposal for a Four-Power Pact covering German demilitarization for 40 years.

It was understood that the meeting was arranged after Bevin asked the Russian Foreign Office for discussions on the Anglo-Russian treaty, signed in 1942. Britain has urged extension of the 20-year treaty to 50 years.

The French delegation proposed suspension of the transfer of Germans from Poland and Czechoslovakia, and called for a Four-Power conference in Paris before July 1 to organize emigration into France and other suitable countries.

The conference was in recess today, but will reconvene tomorrow for the third week of discussions on Germany and Austria.

An authoritative source said that State Secretary Marshall recommended today that the number of Allied troops in Germany be reduced to a bare minimum, to cut occupation costs and help Germany get on her feet economically.

The proposal was contained in one of three American papers circulated by Marshall among the other three ministers, the informant said. The other papers dealt with German "democratization" and the compensation of Allied nations whose property had been removed from Germany as reparations or as war booty.

Under the American recommendation, the Allied Control Council for Germany would be directed to report by next June 1 on the number of forces it considered needed for each of the four zones as of next July 1 and as of July 1, 1948.

War Not Ended Officially Here

An explanation of the "constitutional angle" in the Provincial Government's bill to end the war on June 30 was called for by Opposition Leader Harold Winch in the House yesterday when the bill to amend the Interpretation Act was called for third reading.

It provides that for the purposes of provincial statutes the war shall be deemed to end at midnight on June 30 of this year, but Mr. Winch pointed out that the Dominion Government had recently extended for another year war powers that in some cases invaded provincial jurisdiction.

"Where does this stop?" he asked. "Has the Premier had any discussions with Prime Minister Mackenzie King?"

Attorney-General Gordon Wismer asked that the bill be stood over for further consideration of the point raised by the C.C.F. leader.

The Flooded Fenland—Water Spills Over Ouse

Rising water is spilling over the banks of the River Ouse and flooding large tracts of land in the Fen district of Britain. Hundreds of troops have been sent into this area to assist in strengthening the banks with earth and sand as flood water swirls down into the surrounding countryside through breaches made in the banks. This air view radioed from London shows the swamped, isolated town of Littleport. The course of the River Ouse can be seen to the right. The flood covers the railway line to Ely, Cambridgeshire, five miles away to the south.

Rush Aid to Greece Congress Is Warned

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP).—War Secretary Patterson urged Congress today to rush aid to Greece lest armed bands led by Communists seize control.

Navy Secretary Forrestal disclosed that four minesweepers already have been sold to Turkey and said that country, with Greece, has called for more naval ships.

Dean Acheson, under-secretary of state, asked whether any country besides Russia threatens Turkey, declared that "I do not know of any other country which is a potential aggressor as far as Turkey is concerned."

The three testified before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, with both Patterson and Acheson giving assurances that the sending of United States troops to Greece or Turkey is not in President Truman's plans—"not contemplated," said Patterson; "we do not intend to," said Acheson.

But more than half of the $400,000,000 to be spent in Greece and Turkey as a bulwark against Communism will go for military purposes. This was disclosed by William L. Clayton, under-secretary of state, in testimony before the House of Representatives Foreign Affairs Committee.

The military funds would be an outright grant to the two Mediterranean countries, not a loan, and it was strongly indicated that most of the other money likewise would be a gift. Acheson said he expects only some $50,000,000 to be repaid.

Moreover, Acheson declared, the United States must put more money into Southern Korea because Russia has blocked efforts to unify that country.

Urges One Act On Labor Here

Consolidation into one act of British Columbia's many acts relating to labor was strongly recommended in the Legislature yesterday by Herbert Gargrave (C.C.F., Mackenzie).

His suggestion was prompted by second reading of a bill to amend the Factories Act by deleting a number of sections relating to employment of females.

Labor Minister G. S. Pearson told the House the act was the oldest of the labor statutes, and the purpose of the amendment was to eliminate overlapping by cutting out sections now covered by other acts.

"The majority of the acts are just a paradise to the lawyers," Mr. Gargrave declared. He said it was necessary to refer to so many acts that the layman became completely confused, and suggested that the Government should enlist the assistance of trade union officials in a consolidation of all the labor acts.

Call for Fight To End Revolt

NANKING, March 24 (AP).—The executive committee of China's ruling Kuomintang issued a manifesto today calling for a finish fight against "the Communist rebellion" but holding out some hopes of an eventual settlement.

The statement declared the Communists were "the greatest obstacle to national unity and enforcement of the constitution."

It said that after completion of the projected Government reorganization, the Kuomintang would cooperate with minority parties to "crush the Communist rebellion, protect the existence of the Chinese race and deliver the populace from its present privations."

The Communist radio, broadcasting from Northern Shensi Province, reported that the Nationalist troops which took Yenan, the Communist capital, had suffered 5,000 casualties. The broadcast did not give the present position of either force, but said the troops which captured Yenan on Wednesday were so tired they had not advanced farther by Saturday.

Floods Damage Alberta Areas

BINDLOSS, Alta., March 24 (CP).—The rampaging waters of the Red Deer River, which already have claimed five lives within the last week, broke loose again today and caused untold damage to ranches and farm lands in this district, 162 miles east of Calgary, after carrying away the old wooden motor bridge at Empress. Empress is 12 miles east of here.

Expect Change In Labor Code

OTTAWA, March 24 (CP).—Two major changes in Federal regulations governing strike votes in industrial disputes are proposed in conjunction with the Government's new Dominion labor code, it was learned today.

They are:

1. The present draft of the code, which already has been revised a number of times, contains a clause prohibiting votes by labor in those industries coming under the code until a board of conciliation has reported on a dispute.

2. Order in Council P.C. 3689, providing for Government-supervised strike votes at the request of employers during a dispute, will be allowed to expire May 15.

The legislation would apply at the start only to those industries coming under Federal jurisdiction, which would include railways and communications, coal mining and possibly a few others which provinces may wish to hand over to Dominion control.

However, the Federal Government has hopes its code will be regarded as model legislation and adopted by the provinces, which would widen its effect.

Skilled Forces Are Needed Says General

DETROIT, March 24 (CP).—Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, chairman of the Canadian section of the Canada-United States Joint Defence Board, said in an address here today that defence of North America should be based on "quality forces and quality weapons."

He told the Detroit Economic Club that "it is important that this be well remembered, particularly by those entrusted with conduct of negotiations for reductions of world armaments."

"It is not on numbers of armed forces that we in North America depend for defence against any possible aggression, but on the more highly skilled and perfectly equipped forces by sea, land and air which our special advantages make possible—hard-hitting forces which can be mobile, far-reaching and, as matters stand, decisive in their power against any aggressor."

Saying that unilateral disarmament was found a delusion in the period between the first and second world wars, he added "Just such a delusion would be the surrender of any of the special weapons of great power, in which I include those based on atomic energy."

Plan Campaign On Fish Price

An intensive campaign to organize every otter trawler operating on the British Columbia coast will get under way immediately, and if close to a 100 per cent mark is reached, these fishermen will "take a new stand" in an effort to obtain a guaranteed minimum price agreement, it was learned yesterday.

"It is quite possible there will be another tieup before the season ends," said E. Neish yesterday, president of the United Fisherman and Allied Workers' Union, Victoria local.

Remarking on a report from Vancouver that the otter trawlers had voted in favor of calling off their month-old strike at a general meeting over the week-end, Mr. Neish said: "Our failure to attain our objective was due primarily to the lack of organization and to non-union fishermen."

"To the non-union otter trawlers we are going to explain the benefits they could receive through organization," he added. "If and when we are nearly 100 per cent organized, we will make another, and more successful attempt to get dealers to agree to a minimum price agreement on all catches."

The otter trawler strike involved about 60 boats along the British Columbia coast, of which about 30 operated out of Victoria and Lower Vancouver Island.

Cheribon Pact To Be Signed

BATAVIA, March 24 (AP).—Officials of the Dutch Government and the Indonesian Republic agreed today to sign the Cheribon agreement tomorrow, thus ending 10 months of revolution and bloodshed.

Under the agreement, The Netherlands will recognize the sovereignty of the Indonesian republic over Java, Sumatra and Madera. In return the republic will affiliate with Borneo, Celebes, Netherlands New Guinea, the Lesser Sundas and other Dutch islands, in a United States of Indonesia. The Indonesian states will be linked with Holland under the Dutch Crown.

Viet Nam Head Reported Dead

SAIGON, Indo-China, March 24 (Reuters).—Rumors circulated here today that Dr. Ho Chi Minh, president of the Viet Nam Republic which has been fighting the French since December, is dead.

French official circles could not confirm or deny the report.

Morgan Warns Go Easy on Spending Or City Will Exceed Tax Rate Limit

If the City Council doesn't go easy on expenditures it will find itself exceeding its legal tax rate limit of 31 mills, Ald. L. Morgan told the council yesterday.

If reports of departmental estimates published so far were any indication, he said, the mill rate had already jumped the 11 mills between the present rate of 42 mills and the legal limit.

Ald. Morgan said he based his estimates on what he had read in the newspapers and stated he always believed what he read in the papers.

"Alderman Morgan is away off the beam," replied Ald. Edward Williams, finance committee chairman. "If he had read the whole story he would have seen that much of the money was voted last year and not spent."

The discussion arose after Douglas Fletcher, appearing for the Greater Victoria Box Lacrosse Association, urged that the city hard-surface the lacrosse field at Stevenson Park. Mr. Fletcher said he understood the expenditure for this purpose was being included in the parks committee estimates, but wished to urge that the work be undertaken now rather than waiting until estimates were approved by the council.

Ald. Mulliner, acting parks committee chairman, said the job would cost $3,000 to $4,000.

The request was referred to the committee for recommendation.

City Seeks Reopening Of Talks on Franchise

Will Ask Municipalities to Join in Determining What Concessions B.C. Electric Would Grant

Victoria will ask Esquimalt, Saanich and Oak Bay to appoint representatives to an intermunicipal transportation committee and to join the city in approaching the B.C. Electric Railway with a view to determining what concessions the company would be willing to grant in a new transportation franchise for Greater Victoria.

This decision followed an hour-long report by Ald. Harold M. Diggon covering all phases of the transportation problem, and presentation to the City Council of a petition calling for a plebiscite on the question of public ownership by Robert Mezger, on behalf of the Victoria Labor Council, (C.C.L.-C.I.O.). Mr. Mezger said the petition was signed by 3,233 Victorians.

He admitted this was an insufficient number to make such action mandatory on the part of the Council, and in answer to questions stated he did not know how many signatories were on the voters' list or how many might be juveniles.

The Council referred the petition to the transportation committee without recommendation.

In a detailed outline of the steps which would have to be taken to establish a publicly-owned system here, Ald. Diggon said such a system could not be put in operation in less than two years.

The committee could not guarantee, even then, what type of service could be offered or what fare structure would be established.

The best that could be stated, he said, was that, at the earliest, with everything going according to plan, some kind of service could be offered some time in 1949.

All the researches and calculations of the committee have led to the conclusion that, at least in the initial stages, a fare higher than that in the B.C.E.R. franchise, turned down by the voters last December, would have to be charged if the system was to be operated without loss, Ald. Diggon reported.

The committee considered the people were primarily interested in obtaining cheap modern transportation now, he said, not two or three years from now.

The committee therefore considered that it should not meanwhile remain idle, he said, in recommending that Greater Victoria representatives be asked to determine what concessions could be gained from the B.C. Electric Railway Company.

He reported the company had stated it was willing to negotiate with the committee.

Belmont Block Purchase For City Hall Suggested

Possibility of purchasing the Belmont Building for use as a City Hall will be investigated, it was disclosed yesterday by Ald. Edward Williams, following a meeting of the special City Hall committee.

Although Alderman Williams did not elaborate on this disclosure, it is reported that the Federal Government purchased the eight-story building for $175,000 early in the war and that the city hopes it can be purchased for the same price from the Government.

Members of the City Council, it is reported, feel that the by-law for sale of the present City Hall for $176,000 would be voted down by ratepayers, who believe this is not the time to undertake construction of a new building with prices at a peak and materials in short supply.

If, on the other hand, the Belmont Building could be purchased as a temporary home for the civic administration at a price roughly equivalent to that paid for the present City Hall, it is thought the by-law might pass.

The Belmont Building is now occupied by the Department of Veterans' Affairs, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and other Government agetnsies, some of which have been steadily reducing their activities and staff.

It is considered possible that, should the building be purchased by the city, there would be ample room for many of these agencies to remain, paying rental to the city.

The committee has not yet made any detailed investigation of the plans of the building with a view to determining where the civic offices could be placed.

It is understood the committee will ask R. W. Mayhew, M.P., to determine whether the Dominion Government is willing to make a sale.

Estate at Qualicum May Become Resort

VANCOUVER, March 24 (CP).—Plans were reported afoot here today to make "Eaglecrest," the former Sumner home of the late Senator A. D. McRae at Qualicum Beach on Vancouver Island, into an exclusive "millionaire" resort.

E. L. Boultbee, Vancouver realtor, recently purchased the house and some accessories for $125,000.

The future of the luxurious estate has been a subject of speculation for months. At one time it was reported, and later denied, that Bing Crosby was negotiating for its purchase.

Says Communists in U.S. Aim to "Soften" Country

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP).—The House of Representatives Committee on un-American activities heard testimony today that there are enough Communists in the United States to form the framework of 10 military divisions and that their aim is to soften this country "for the ultimate assault the Soviet intends to make."

The estimate of Communist party strength and organization came from James Green, chairman of the American Legion's Americanism Commission. Saying there are at least 100,000 Communists in the United States, he added:

"Here are cadres for 10 divisions already on American soil."

William Bullitt, former ambassador to Moscow, made the assessment of aims, coupling it with the assertion that if Russia had the atom bomb, "it would already have been dropped on the United States."

Russia, Bullitt said, "will not choose to attack until it has manufactured atomic bombs in quantity and until it feels that it has an air force stronger than the United States."

That gives us a certain time "in which we can say stop to Stalin and mean it, and he will stop," Bullitt said. But Stalin will not stop of his own accord, Bullitt added, any more than Hitler did.

He recommended "emphatically" that the United States keep an ample supply of atomic bombs on hand.

Legion spokesmen endorsed the measures pending before the un-American Activities Committee, one to make membership in the Communist party illegal and another to make it unlawful for Communists to run for Federal or State office, or for anyone to teach Communism or mail Communist propaganda.

Loyalist Forces Asked to Yield

RIO DE JANEIRO, March 24 (AP).—Paraguayan rebels have demanded the unconditional surrender of Loyalist forces of President Higinio Moringo, Brazilian correspondents with the rebel forces at Concepcion reported today.

Truman Plans Canadian Trip

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP).—President Truman was reported tonight to be planning a trip to Canada in June.

Officials indicated he would go if other business permitted.

Viscount Alexander, Governor-General of Canada, paid a courtesy visit here last February, and invited the President to make a trip to Ottawa.

U.S.A. and Britain Tell United Nations World Not Ready for Disarmament

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., March 24 (AP).—The United States and Britain told the United Nations almost in unison today that the world is not yet ready for disarmament and won't be until international security is established.

Russia, which presented the original arms-slashing proposals in a speech by Foreign Minister Molotov to the United Nations General Assembly last October, remained silent on the momentous issue as the two Western powers opened debate at the first meeting of the 11-nation commission on conventional armaments.

"When peace is concluded and security is organized, reduction of armaments then will be politically feasible," American Delegate Herschel V. Johnson told the initial arms session on the eve of the United Nation's first anniversary in the United States.

Sir Alexander Cadogan, British delegate, declared that the United Nations must establish international confidence with a global police force as its bulwark before "any concrete measures to regulate or reduce armaments can be put into effect."

Both the speakers emphasized they were ready to go ahead with a study of arms reduction immediately, but held little hopes for early results.

As the discussions got under way delegates kept a sharp eye on Moscow and Washington dispatches for trends such as might be indicated by the conference between Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Generalissimo Britain in the Soviet capital and Under-Secretary of State Acheson's statement that Russia is a "potential aggressor" against Turkey.

"The regulation of armaments is not itself the ultimate objective," Johnson said. "The ultimate objective is a world in which free men can live in peace and security."

He then laid down four conditions which must be met:

1. Safeguards as an inseperable part of any system of regulation.

2. Completion of the peace treaties with Germany and Japan.

3. Conclusion of special agreements setting up an international military force.

4. Establishment of strict international control of atomic energy. Cadogan laid down three basic principles which he said must be accepted in the United Nations is to succeed with any arms reduction program. Differing little from the United States points, they were:

1. The reduction and regulation of armaments and armed forces depends primarily on the establishment of international confidence; the converse argument is misleading and dangerous.

2. Completion of an international military force would contribute greatly to the desired establishment of international confidence.

3. The establishment of an effective system of international control and verification must precede the adoption of any system for arms reduction.

Committee Surveying Loyalty-Check Method

OTTAWA, March 24 (CP).—Following closely on the heels of President Truman's sweeping screening order for the United States Government service, it was learned here that an inter-departmental committee is making a survey of measures now being taken to check on the loyalty of persons in the Canadian Civil Service.

These were indications [illegible] steps might be proposed later to investigate "un-Canadian" activities generally.

Civil Service officials said they had heard of the work of this committee, established some time after publication of the Royal Commission report on espionage activities which shocked Canada more than a year ago.

The committee has not yet completed its studies, aimed at deciding if additional security measures are needed to check on the loyalties of those within the service and the screening of those entering.

Meanwhile, Rev. E. C. Manning, Social Credit member of Parliament for the Alberta constituency of Macleod, said in an interview that he intended to place before the Commons at the next session of Parliament a resolution which would set up a special committee on "un-Canadian activities" in Canada.

Commenting on President Truman's order, S. G. Nelson, Civil Service commissioner, said, "we have felt that the measures taken during the war years to screen those coming into the Civil Service were sufficient."

He knew of no change in procedure under which all employees are subject to a thorough screening before entering the service and those whose records are in question are not employed.

Big Ben Lights Turned On Again

LONDON, March 24 (AP).—The lights of Big Ben, the clock atop the Houses of Parliament, went on again tonight. They were switched off two months ago when a shortage of electricity shut down industrial plants.

Use of electricity in homes still is banned for five hours daily through Britain.

Ilsley Clarifies Stand On Privy Council Item

OTTAWA, March 24 (CP).—Quebec Liberal members of the Commons, who Friday said a "crisis" was arising in their ranks as a result of statements by Justice Minister Ilsley, said tonight they were content that a clarification by the minister had "undone" all the "harm" of his earlier statements.

The members said that last week Mr. Ilsley, without qualification, had stated that the Dominion Government, for the purposes of peace, order and good government, could pass legislation even if that legislation interferred with provincial rights in times of peace.

Such an opinion was unacceptable to many members from Quebec where Premier Duplessis, as head of a Union Nationale Government, is fighting for provincial autonomy. As a result the Quebec Liberal members, gathering together, decided that the statement of the Justice Minister could not go unchallenged.

It was learned that the Quebec Liberals approached Cabinet members, explained their situation and warned that there were several Quebec Liberal members who were prepared to "Let go a blast against Mr. Ilsley." At that point it was decided that as soon as he had an opportunity Mr. Ilsley would clarify his earlier statements.

As a result when Edouard Rinfret (L.-Outremont) asked whether the bill continuing controls was based upon any constitutional ground other than that contained in the resolution before the House, Mr. Ilsley said:

"[illegible] honorable gentlemen has in his mind something I said the other day, but all I said that day was this: 'In response to questioning about a recent judgment of the Privy Council, I told the House what the judgment seemed to decide, supporting what I said by an opinion from the Deputy Minister of Justice.

"None of our legislation is based on this decision of the Privy Council.

"Our legislation is based on the existence of a national emergency arising out of the war, on the emergency doctrine, to which no one takes any exception either in this House or outside of it.

"My statement did not purport in any sense to be one of Government policy or any indication of Government policy. It was a report to the House on what the court had decided. Nothing more."

The judgment referred to by Mr. Ilsley was that of the Privy Council in upholding the validity of the Canada Temperance Act.

J. A. Dion (L.-Lake St. John-Roberval) congratulated Mr. Ilsley on his statement and said that as a result of it Quebec members would find themselves in a position to support the control bill.

250,000 New Clients

OTTAWA, March 24. — Glen J. Spahn, new president of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, reported that 250,000 Canadians purchased company policies last year. New business totaled $217,564,850, compared with $172,446,469 in 1945.

Policies in force represent $1,937,785,490.

The sum of $137,845,377 was set aside for dividends on ordinary and industrial policies. Total assets of the company for operations in Canada and the United States are $8,045,432,384. Assets exceed obligations by $496,982,281.

TRUST COMPANY MERGER

LONDON, Ont., March 24.—Merger of London & Western Trusts Co., Ltd., with the Canada Trust Company will become effective March 31. Canada Trust Company will pay London & Western Trusts Co., Ltd., shareholders $175 per share.

. . Oddities . .

BELLEVILLE, Ont., March 24 (CP).—She didn't mind getting her shoes wet when she stepped off a curb into what she thought was a puddle of water but when the young visitor to Belleville sank to her arm pits, she became annoyed.

She had stepped into an open catch basin and her claim for damages filed with the city clerk now is in the hands of an insurance company.

DETROIT, March 24 (AP).—Willie Senters, 25, awakened today to find his mattress afire.

He tried to shove it out a first-story window but it stuck.

So Willie backed up and took a short run at it.

The mattress remained wedged but Willie flew out the window and fell 15 feet into a basement stairway.

Willie suffered an injured arm.

BOSTON, March 24 (AP).—Six housewives were fined $10 each today for playing poker on the Lord's Day.

They were arrested in a police raid Sunday.

The complainants — their husbands.

YORKTON, Sask., March 24 (CP).—Justice of the Peace W. O. Brunsell of Yorkton is the type of man in whose honor pedestrians may yet dedicate monuments. He fined Helmuth Easlinger $15 or 30 days in jail today on a charge of reckless driving after witnesses testified Easlinger's auto had splashed a pedestrian.

Power Supply Hinders X-Ray

GANGES, March 24.—A film of South Africa was shown by Philip Watson during a meeting of Salt Spring Island Parent-Teacher Association in the home economics room of United School. Mr. Watson described many of the places he visited while taking the film. Mrs. D. K. Crofton presided.

The sum of $100 was voted to the students' council towards the making of tennis courts on the school grounds.

An orchestra from Victoria has been engaged for the Easter Monday dance, all other arrangements being left in the hands of Mrs. George St. Denis.

Owing to insufficient electric power on the island the mobile T.B. unit was only able to X-ray 40 children who had been recommended by doctors.

Mrs. W. L. Rogers was commended for her work in advertising the T.B. clinic and her work in connection with it. The traveling clinic will visit the Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital, Ganges, in May.

Mrs. F. L. Jackson, owing to sickness in her family, was forced to resign as delegate to the provincial convention.

After looking over lists of rural Parent-Teacher Associations in British Columbia, it was found that Salt Spring, with a membership of 137, ranked as one of the largest.

Owing to the numerous activities undertaken recently by the organization, it was decided to hold no meeting in April.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. F. Sharpe and Mrs. Jesse Bond.

Convicted Man Accuses Judge

LONDON, March 24 (Reuters).—In a tense scene shortly before he was sentenced to death today for the "chalkpit" murder of a bartender, Thomas Ley, 66-year-old former New South Wales Minister of Justice, accused the judge, Lord Chief Justice Goddard, of bias in his summing up to the jury.

Looking straight at Lord Goddard, Ley calmly said: "I am not surprised at the verdict after your biased summing up. I am perfectly innocent. I said it from the beginning and I say it now." A smile was on Ley's lips when he was led away.

Lawrence J. Smith, 38-year-old carpenter, also received the death sentence for his part in the murder of John McMain Mudie, 35, whose roped body was found in a partly-dug grave in a Surrey chalkpit last November 30.

The prosecution's case was that Ley became jealous of Mrs. Maggy Brook, 66-year-old Australian widow who lived in London, believing she had been friendly with Mudie.

Smith testified that Ley paid him £200 ($800) for luring Mudie into Ley's apartment two days before the murder on the pretext that the bartender was wanted to sign a confession that he blackmailed Mrs. Brook. He was to be given £300 ($1,200) to get out of the country.

Smith testified that when he left the apartment shortly afterwards, Mudie was bound with ropes but was alive and had not suffered any violence.

CHIEF JUSTICE HONORED

VANCOUVER, March 24 (CP).—Twenty-two judges of the Court of Appeal, Supreme Court and County Court of British Columbia attended a dinner here tonight in honor of Chief Justice Wendell B. Farris. The 60-year-old Chief Justice was feted for his accomplishments on the bench and for the loyalty he had created among his brother judges.

The records of the Plymouth colony in Massachusetts show that 10 barrels of cranberries were sent as a gift to Charles II of England.

Jinxed Ship Makes Port

CAPETOWN, March 24 (AP).—After an 82-day voyage, plagued by bad weather and ill-luck, the 3,000-ton, four-masted Finnish bark Passat has arrived from Sweden with a cargo of timber.

From the beginning the ship appeared jinxed. First one of the tugs towing the ship out of her home harbor capsized and nine persons were drowned. The Passat then struck a sandbank and knocked a hole in the hull.

After repairs had been made the ship left Karlshamm on New Year's Eve.

Soon after she had set sail the vessel ran into a 90-mile gale in the Atlantic. Two life boats were carried away. The leak in the hull reopened and for 15 days the passengers, eight men, three women, and one child, and the crew struggled to keep the vessel afloat, bailing water from the hold. At one time there was three feet of water in the cabins.

Some provisions were destroyed and the group had to live mainly on sardines. They decided to carry on to Capetown, however, and within another 53 days, for three weeks of which they were becalmed, they reached port.

Big Jet Plane Ready to Test

SAN DIEGO, Calif., March 24 (AP).—The XB-46, experimental four-jet bomber built by Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp., will make its initial test flight this week-end, company officials announced today. Official taxi tests are scheduled for Wednesday.

The sleek bomber, powered by four J-35 turbojet engines housed in two low-slung nacelles, has been in secret production for two years, and only recently was wheeled out of the experimental building. The plane has a length of 105 feet 9 inches and a wingspan of 113 feet.

After taking off from here on the first test flight, the high-speed bomber is expected to fly to Muroc, Calif., army air field to undergo further tests.

Boxcars Needed To Ship Grain

VANCOUVER, March 24 (CP).—D. A. Kane, Western representative of the Canadian Wheat Board, said tonight the United Kingdom would be "highly embarrassed" unless railways allocated more boxcars for grain shipments from the Prairies to this coast.

"Unless they do better, conditions here are going to get steadily worse," he said. "We are in danger of not meeting our commitments to Britain this year."

HUSKY THIEVES ROB STORE

ST. BONIFACE, Man., March 24 (CP).—Ambitious—and strong-armed—thieves walked off with a 1,000-pound safe from a grocery store here over the week-end. The safe, a cylinder type, was encased in a block of concrete, police reported today.

Evidence Secret Declares Howe

OTTAWA, March 24 (CP).—Reconstruction Minister Howe said today in the Commons evidence taken in the hearing of three men charged with conspiracy in connection with the uranium-bearing Eldorado Mines will be kept secret.

Mr. Howe was speaking in opposing a motion by John Diefenbaker (P.C., Lake Centre) for the production of a transcript of the evidence.

He said the hearing had been held in camera at the request of "other governments" concerned in the inquiry and that the reasons for secrecy were just as necessary today as then.

The three men charged with conspiracy to defraud the Eldorado Mining & Refining Company on Great Bear Lake were Marcel Pochon, former director of the company and credited with helping to devise a process to remove radium from pitchblende; Carl French, former secretary of the company, and Boris Pregel, of New York.

Telephone Men Vote to Strike

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP).—The policy committee of the National Federation of Telephone Workers today voted to call a strike on the Bell Telephone System throughout the United States at 6 a.m. April 7.

President Joseph A. Beirne, of the N.F.T.W., announced the action of the 49-member policy committee at the close of the first day's session in what was announced as a week-long meeting.

Beirne said the committee had voted unanimously to begin a nationwide tie-up of telephone service by 287,000 members of 39 unions on April 7 at 6 a.m. in each time zone across the county.

LARGE RAIL SYSTEM

India has the fourth largest railway system in the world with 41,434 miles of track.

Cool Four-Year-Old Child Saves Mother From Death

LYNBROOK, N.Y., March 24 (AP).—Four-year-old Dorothy Klopper, calmly meeting the first crisis of her young life, saved her mother from death today.

Dorothy smelled a "bad smell" in her home and saw her mother, Madeline, 26, fall to the floor, police reported.

The child ran to a telephone and called police headquarters.

Over the phone, Sgt. Harry J. Eagan heard the troubled voice of a child who said: "Mr. Policeman, my mother fell on the floor and we need some help, please."

"What's your name?" Eagan asked.

"Dotty—I'm four," the child replied.

"I can help you," Eagan said. "Tell me where you live."

The child paused. "I don't know. . . . I'll ask Mommy."

In a few minutes the child was back on the phone. Apparently having memorized what her semi-conscious mother had mumbled, Dorothy repeated carefully: "Washington, Lynbrook, New York."

Washington Avenue is a long residential street, and Eagan had no idea from which house the call was coming.

Eagan flashed a telephone operator to trace the call.

Minutes later a rescue party found Mrs. Klopper unconscious and the house smelling of gas.

Police found the jets of a stove in the kitchen had been turned off, and Dorothy said she had done it.

"Was it all right?" the child asked. "That's where the bad smell was coming from."

Mrs. Klopper was revived, and after treatment at a hospital was returned home.

Police reported she had left a farewell note to the family.

Her husband, Otto, said she had been in poor health.

FORD OF CANADA REDUCES AUTOMOBILE PRICES

$35.00 cut immediately on all models
Ford, Monarch, Mercury cars
Ford and Mercury trucks

A Statement By
DOUGLAS B. GREIG, President
Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited

"A reduction of $35 in the retail delivered prices of all models of Ford, Monarch and Mercury passenger cars and Ford and Mercury trucks became effective throughout Canada on March 22.

"When the Wartime Prices and Trade Board authorized increases in car and truck prices last December, we published a pledge that the moment conditions warranted, Ford of Canada would lower prices.

"Today's across-the-board reduction is the first step in fulfilling that promise. Although the Company suffered a loss on 1946 operations, there has been a gradual improvement in our position. We are immediately sharing with our customers the benefits of this improvement.

"There is another important reason for our action. We believe that the maintenance of a stable economy in this country during peacetime is a primary obligation of industry and business. The cost-of-living index has risen and may continue to rise. This drift toward ever higher prices is a drift toward instability and inflation, and in our view, strong corrective measures are necessary.

"The drift stems naturally enough from a shortage of goods, coupled with a great pent-up demand and purchasing power. The demand for our own products has never been greater. We are already selling all the cars and trucks we can make, and enough firm orders are on hand to keep our plants operating at capacity for many months to come.

"Our concern is far greater for the security of the markets of the future than for the markets of today. In our opinion the security of these markets—the vast markets on which mass production industry must depend—can be seriously threatened by the trend toward higher prices.

"Ford of Canada has always operated on the simple principle of making more and more at lower and lower cost so that more and more people can buy. This policy has led to the sale of more than 2,000,000 cars and trucks in the 43 years of our history—to the creation of a mass market which has meant better things for more people everywhere in Canada.

"Our action is dictated both by considerations of the national interest and of our own interest. We look upon this price reduction as an initial move in what we hope will be a widespread attack on inflationary forces.

"We are hoping for the wholehearted support of our employees, our dealers, and our suppliers in our continuing effort to lower costs and prices."

Publicity Party's Expedition Foiled by Unscheduled Rain

Detailed arrangements for the day had been completed. The large camera was in tip-top shape, films were ready, and a representative party of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, with A. R. McIntyre, chairman of the Sidney Chamber of Commerce tourist committee, left Sidney early Sunday afternoon in a trim motor launch.

Purpose of the visit was to secure a number of color photographs of scenes off Sidney and through the nearby Gulf Islands.

One picture was taken. Then it started to rain.

George I. Warren, commissioner of the publicity bureau, who has spent the last 25 years advertising the superior climate of the Island, yesterday commented on the Sunday expedition: "Something must have gone wrong. Usually we can bank on the weather being good."

With Mr. McIntyre on the trip were Miss Ethel Hole and Mrs. Veronica Skellern of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau.

TOWN PLANNING

Major-General H. A. Young, vice-president of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, Ottawa, will address a meeting of the newly-formed Victoria Branch, Community Planning Association, in the City Hall at 8 p.m. Friday.

The meeting will be followed by a brief business session at which officers will be elected for the branch. All persons interested in town planning are urged to attend.

BUILDING PERMITS

The city building department has issued permits to Walter B. Revercomb for a five-room house at 1266 Basil Avenue to cost $8,000 to Ruby B. Foster for a four-room house at 1165 Fairfield Road to cost $7,200; and to B. A. Reid for a five-room house at 433 Kingston Street to cost $7,000.

ATOMIC BOMB FILMS

A special lecture of unusual interest will highlight the final Spring meeting of the Victoria Centre, Royal Astronomical Society of Canada. Professor Joseph E. Henderson, director of the applied physics laboratory, University of Washington, will address the society on the Bikini atomic bomb test.

The meeting will be held Wednesday, April 9, at 8 p.m. in the Victoria High School.

Professor Henderson, who was present at Bikini during the experiment, has obtained permission from the United States Navy to show motion pictures that were taken during the explosion of the bomb. He will also demonstrate radioactivity acquired by some of the equipment used at the tests.

HARD OF HEARING

Mrs. W. F. Gold will address the Victoria Club for the Hard of Hearing on Wednesday at 8:15 p.m. in the clubrooms of the group, 1416 Douglas Street.

She has chosen as her subject, "Places and People of England."

BOARDS OF TRADE

Annual convention of the Vancouver Island Associated Boards of Trade will be held at Courtenay June 24 and 25, it was announced yesterday by George Warren, managing secretary.

THIRD VICTORIA SCOUTS

John Hodder was invested as a regular member of the Third Victoria Scout Troop at the regular meeting Friday. Stan Pollard passed his Tenderfoot first aid and Bruce Macmillan, Bud Squair, and Norman Alexander passed their lashings.

On a high Sunday Bud Squair and David Pickering passed their tracking tests and Bruce Macmillan and Danny Morris passed his fire-lighting tests. Bruce Macmillan and Bud Squair also passed their hitches.

Seek to Locate Man and Woman

City police are seeking information as to the whereabouts of George Edward Tandy and Florence Jean Lucas, for whom they hold messages.

According to information already in the hands of the department, Mr. Tandy apparently came to Victoria from Vancouver about a year ago and is believed to be a resident of this city or some small community between here and Nanaimo.

Florence Lucas was at one time a resident of Victoria. Her father is in Davenport, La., at the present time.

Both these persons, or anyone having information as to their whereabouts, are asked to contact the detective department at city police headquarters.

Orders in Council Alter Boundaries

Fifty-four provincial orders in council redrafting the boundaries of vital statistics registration districts were signed yesterday.

Purpose of the amending orders is mainly to make registration district boundaries conform with those of school districts. Affected on Vancouver Island are the vital statistics districts of Victoria, Ladysmith, Nanaimo, Duncan, Ganges, Cumberland, Courtenay, Chemainus, Campbell River and Alert Bay.

Last major changes in boundaries were made 15 years ago.

U.N. Authority Needs Limits Speaker Says

"The authority exercised by the United Nations as a controlling agency should be relative to the sphere in which it governs," said Professor J. A. Crum, of the department of economics at the University of British Columbia, speaking last night to the Victoria Extension Association at a meeting in the Central Junior High School.

Speaking on "Economic Problems of the United Nations," Dr. Crum emphasized that United Nations must have the authority to govern international problems but should not transcend the powers of individual countries. "United Nations," he said, "must not be fused with or in conflict with, national authority."

Illustrating the solidarity with which totalitarian governments can present their problems as compared with the diverse front presented by democratic countries, Professor Crum felt that United Nations should deal separately with collective and private enterprises.

The speaker referred to the international banking system as the best solution yet attempted in international finance. Whereas the United Nations has no laws or statutes to enforce, he said, the banking control has the right to take action against any offending authority.

Referring to the international monetary fund as "a world bank for reconstruction and development," Dr. Crum regarded it as "a constructive agency and not a penalizing one."

The guest speaker was introduced by Mrs. H. E. Young, president of the Victoria Extension, and thanked by E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister of trade and industry.

Plan Big Display At Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI, March 24.—Sponsored by Memorial Centre Committee, 300 high school and Pro-Rec girls will stage a "keep fit" display in R.C.E.M.E. Hall at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

The program will include Swedish, gypsy and pirate dances, vaulting teams, springboard displays, handstands, cartwheels, and many other gymnastics. There will also be boxing matches between local boys, and a demonstration by Arrowsmith Archers.

To Lecture on China

DUNCAN, March 24.—Maj.-Gen. Victor Odlum will speak on "China Today" at a public meeting sponsored by Women's Canadian Club in the K. of P. Hall at 8 p.m. Friday.

To Hold Pet Parade

DUNCAN, March 24.—Cowichan and Somenos Women's Institutes will hold a pet parade at the Duncan Dominion Day Carnival on July 1.

Seattle Show Will Include All Canada Day

Several Provincial and civic government officials will participate in an "All Canada Day" to be held in connection with an indoor sports show in Seattle in April.

The sports show will be held in the Seattle Civic Auditorium under sponsorship of The Seattle Times. "All Canada Day" will be observed on Wednesday, April 16, and on that day E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister of trade and industry for British Columbia, will serve as chairman.

Mayor Percy E. George has also expressed his intention of attending on that date. With him will be Mayors G. G. McGeer, Vancouver, and W. Mott, New Westminster. Leo Sweeney, head of the Evergreen Playground Association, Vancouver, will also attend.

According to Alfred Duplane, who has arranged for Canadian participation in the event, 100,000 persons are expected to attend the big show and exhibition from April 12 to 21—aimed primarily at familiarizing all who attend with practically all outdoor aspects of the entire Pacific Northwest.

A number of British Columbia firms, including the British Columbia Electric Railway Co., Ltd., will enter exhibits.

GIRLS' DRILL TEAM INVITED TO ATTEND

The famed Victoria Girls' Drill Team has been invited to attend. From the Mainland will go the Vancouver police pistol team, to compete with the Seattle police pistol team, and the Vancouver Police Pipe Band.

It is expected a large number of people from Victoria and the Mainland will see the exhibition.

Among many attractions will be performances by an expert wood cutter and axe handler from Australia. He will challenge all-comers in a contest.

In the great auditorium will be a water tank measuring 40 by 90 feet. Here sports fishermen will conduct fly-casting contests. Each evening a live octupus will be placed in the tank, and a casting display will be held.

In booths allocated to industry and business, large United States and Canadian firms will exhibit aircraft, locomotives, and other industrial products.

Body to Award Scholarships In Agriculture

Canadian students pursuing post-graduate work in agricultural sciences during the 1947-48 university terms are eligible for 20 new scholarships of $800 each sponsored by the Agricultural Institute of Canada, J. J. Woods, B.C. institute director and supervisor of the Dominion Experimental Farm, Saanichton, announced last night.

Scholarships will be awarded on an open competition basis, he said and will be presented to outstanding Canadian students to allow them additional training in the fields of agriculture and agricultural extension.

By raising the standards of such students, the federation executive feels that it will do much to benefit the industry in Canada as a whole, Mr. Woods explained.

Application forms may be obtained upon request from the general secretary of the Agricultural Institute of Canada, 1005 Confederation Building, Ottawa, and entries must be filed before June 1.

Money for the scholarships, Mr. Woods stated, came from generous donations of various industrial concerns in Canada.

The Beauty and the Porpoise

—Colonist Photo.

Pretty Miss Isobel Pierce is pictured above with a 200-pound porpoise landed yesterday at B. W. Brown & Son, Ltd., Montreal Street. An office employee of the firm, Miss Pierce is holding the small but wicked-looking hand harpoon with which the mammal was caught Sunday afternoon off Sheringham Point, roughly 20 miles out of Victoria.

Victoria Fisherman Harpoons And Lands Six-Foot Porpoise

Details of an interesting sea battle were related yesterday by a Victoria fisherman who harpooned and landed a 200-pound porpoise off Sheringham Point, about 20 miles out of Victoria.

Cecil Hannay, commercial fisherman, was fishing with his 45-foot vessel Rosarah, when a large school of porpoises passed at close range. "Why not?" he said, eyeing a small but deadly harpoon he carried among his fishing gear.

One of the large mammals brushed alongside the fishing boat. Fisherman Hannay "let 'er go." The weapon found its mark, and down into the depths raced the stricken porpoise. Attached to the harpoon was a 100-fathom line. The ensuing fight for its life—hopeless from the start—was a vicious but short-lived one. Completely exhausted after futile attempts for freedom, the six-foot porpoise was brought to the surface and hauled aboard.

"The harpooning of porpoises is nothing unusual in more northern waters," said Mr. Hannay. "The fishermen up there catch them in big numbers, and use them for bait." The mammals are plentiful in British Columbia waters, and can be seen off Victoria's shores many times. They are ultra-streamlined, and travel through the water "like bloomin' rockets."

Landed at the fish handling firm of B. W. Brown & Son Ltd., the mammal was delivered to a local fish store, where it will be on display for a limited time.

Ship Will Serve West Coast Ports

Santa Juana, new addition to the Grace Line West Coast fleet, will sail from San Francisco Saturday for the west coast of South America, it was announced yesterday by officials of the company. The ship will serve British Columbia and the west coast of the United States.

Ready to Move Fifty Patients To New Hospital

Transfer of 50 patients from the Gordon Head Health and Occupational Centre to the new Veterans' Hospital on Richmond Avenue here will take place Wednesday, S. H. Okell, deputy assistant administrator for the Department of Veterans' Affairs, said yesterday.

The patients were scheduled to be moved yesterday, he said, but some delay in kitchen installations was responsible for the delay.

Those being moved to Victoria, it was announced, are mostly bed patients. Others at the Gordon Head centre, which is soon to close down, will go to the new health and occupational centre at Burnaby.

Milk Price Controls Are Essential Committee Reports to Legislature

Officials Seek Explanation Of Proposals

Canadian Legion officials in Victoria are striving to clarify the recommendation of an investigating committee that prices of house on the Braefoot Estate be reduced by 20 per cent.

Authorities here yesterday contacted S. D. Buzzelle, Legion-appointed Vancouver member of the committee, in an effort to get his interpretation of the clause in the report recommending a 20 per cent reduction.

L. G. Scott, Victoria member of the committee, appointed by the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council, has made his position clear to the effect that the reduction should be to the price of the house.

Walter S. Woods, deputy minister of veterans' affairs, stated Friday that J. Y. McCarter, chairman of the investigating committee, had informed him personally that the committee did not mean that the net cost to the veteran be reduced by 20 per cent, but that the gross cost to the director (Gordon Murchison) be so reduced.

Mr. Woods pointed out that in the case of a $7,000 home the act provided a conditional grant of $1,400, which represented 20 per cent, thus taking care of the committee's recommendations.

Informed of this interpretation of the recommendation, Mr. Scott immediately denied that the clause was to be so interpreted. Said Mr. Scott: "Our recommendations were that the cost of the house, and the house alone, not the property, be reduced 20 per cent." He reaffirmed his stand on the situation again yesterday.

Meanwhile, Braefoot tenants, Legion officials and the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council are waiting to hear from Mr. Buzzelle and Mr. McCarter before they take any action.

Canadian Legion Official Robert Knight said last night: "It is a plain case of 'hedging' on the part of Mr. Woods and his associates. However, we will take no action until we hear the opinion of Mr. Buzzelle."

Controls over milk prices set up under the Milk Act passed by the Legislature last year are favorable to both the producer and the consumer, according to a finding of the Legislature's committee on agriculture presented to the House yesterday.

In its work for the session ended, the committee formally reported to the House yesterday that it had discussed controls with Ernest C. Carr, one-man milk board for the Province, and concluded that controls were essential.

The committee also endorsed the following recommendations by the advisory board of Farmers' Institutes:—

1. That the Government establish an agricultural college in the Interior, similar to that at Olds, Alta.

2. That the impounding and destruction of wild horses be permitted east of the Kootenays.

3. That the Dominion Government be urged to see that seed and fertilizer are sold only in new sacks, to prevent the spread of crop diseases.

4. [illegible] land-clearing assistance be spread over five years, instead of the present two-year limit.

5. That coloring of gasoline for agriculture purposes be reinstated.

6. That stockbreeders and farmers generally be represented on the game board.

7. That bounties on predatory animals be increased to $50 for wolves, $40 for cougars, and $8 all year round for coyotes.

The report said the bill now before the House to create a professional act covering the practice of agrology had been endorsed by the committee, with three members dissenting.

Dates Announced For Campaign

"Clean Up-Paint Up Week" will be observed in Greater Victoria from May 10 to May 24, officers of the Junior Chamber of Commerce announced last night.

The drive here will be conducted by the Junior Chamber and will be run in conjunction with the national drive, it was announced.

Manufacturing plants, waterfront concerns and all businesses will be contacted and reminded of the two-week clean-up drive.

The Junior Chamber will also be in charge of street and store decoration for May 24.

U.N. Authority Needs Limits Speaker Says

"The authority exercised by the United Nations as a controlling agency should be relative to the sphere in which it governs," said Professor J. A. Crum, of the department of economics at the University of British Columbia, speaking last night to the Victoria Extension Association at a meeting in the Central Junior High School.

Speaking on "Economic Problems of the United Nations," Dr. Crum emphasized that United Nations must have the authority to govern international problems but should not transcend the powers of individual countries. "United Nations," he said, "must not be fused with or in conflict with, national authority."

Illustrating the solidarity with which totalitarian governments can present their problems as compared with the diverse front presented by democratic countries, Professor Crum felt that United Nations should deal separately with collective and private enterprises.

The speaker referred to the international banking system as the best solution yet attempted in international finance. Whereas the United Nations has no laws or statutes to enforce, he said, the banking control has the right to take action against any offending authority.

Referring to the international monetary fund as "a world bank for reconstruction and development," Dr. Crum regarded it as "a constructive agency and not a penalizing one."

The guest speaker was introduced by Mrs. H. E. Young, president of the Victoria Extension, and thanked by E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister of trade and industry.

Plan Big Display At Port Alberni

PORT ALBERNI, March 24.—Sponsored by Memorial Centre Committee, 300 high school and Pro-Rec girls will stage a "keep fit" display in R.C.E.M.E. Hall at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

The program will include Swedish, gypsy and pirate dances, vaulting teams, springboard displays, handstands, cartwheels, and many other gymnastics. There will also be boxing matches between local boys, and a demonstration by Arrowsmith Archers.

To Lecture on China

DUNCAN, March 24.—Maj.-Gen. Victor Odlum will speak on "China Today" at a public meeting sponsored by Women's Canadian Club in the K. of P. Hall at 8 p.m. Friday.

To Hold Pet Parade

DUNCAN, March 24.—Cowichan and Somenos Women's Institutes will hold a pet parade at the Duncan Dominion Day Carnival on July 1.

Seattle Show Will Include All Canada Day

Several Provincial and civic government officials will participate in an "All Canada Day" to be held in connection with an indoor sports show in Seattle in April.

The sports show will be held in the Seattle Civic Auditorium under sponsorship of The Seattle Times. "All Canada Day" will be observed on Wednesday, April 16, and on that day E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister of trade and industry for British Columbia, will serve as chairman.

Mayor Percy E. George has also expressed his intention of attending on that date. With him will be Mayors G. G. McGeer, Vancouver, and W. Mott, New Westminster, Leo Sweeney, head of the Evergreen Playground Association, Vancouver, will also attend.

According to Alfred Duplane, who has arranged for Canadian participation in the event, 100,000 persons are expected to attend the big show and exhibition from April 12 to 21—aimed primarily at familiarizing all who attend with practically all outdoor aspects of the entire Pacific Northwest.

A number of British Columbia firms, including the British Columbia Electric Railway Co., Ltd., will enter exhibits.

GIRLS' DRILL TEAM INVITED TO ATTEND

The famed Victoria Girls' Drill Team has been invited to attend. From the Mainland will go the Vancouver police pistol team, to compete with the Seattle police pistol team, and the Vancouver Police Pipe Band.

It is expected a large number of people from Victoria and the Mainland will see the exhibition.

Among many attractions will be performances by an expert wood cutter and axe handler from Australia. He will challenge all-comers in a contest.

In the great auditorium will be a water tank measuring 40 by 90 feet. Here sports fishermen will conduct fly-casting contests. Each evening a live octupus will be placed in the tank, and a casting display will be held.

In booths allocated to industry and business, large United States and Canadian firms will exhibit aircraft, locomotives, and other industrial products.

Body to Award Scholarships In Agriculture

Canadian students pursuing post-graduate work in agricultural sciences during the 1947-48 university terms are eligible for 20 new scholarships of $800 each sponsored by the Agricultural Institute of Canada, J. J. Woods, B.C. institute director and supervisor of the Dominion Experimental Farm, Saanichton, announced last night.

Scholarships will be awarded on an open competition basis, he said and will be presented to outstanding Canadian students to allow them additional training in the fields of agriculture and agricultural extension.

By raising the standards of such students, the federation executive feels that it will do much to benefit the industry in Canada as a whole, Mr. Woods explained.

Application forms may be obtained upon request from the general secretary of the Agricultural Institute of Canada, 1005 Confederation Building, Ottawa, and entries must be filed before June 1.

Money for the scholarships, Mr. Woods stated, came from generous donations of various industrial concerns in Canada.

The Beauty and the Porpoise

—Colonist Photo.

Pretty Miss Isobel Pierce is pictured above with a 200-pound porpoise landed yesterday at B. W. Brown & Son, Ltd., Montreal Street. An office employee of the firm, Miss Pierce is holding the small but wicked-looking hand harpoon with which the mammal was caught Sunday afternoon off Sheringham Point, roughly 20 miles out of Victoria.

Victoria Fisherman Harpoons And Lands Six-Foot Porpoise

Details of an interesting sea battle were related yesterday by a Victoria fisherman who harpooned and landed a 200-pound porpoise off Sherringham Point, about 20 miles out of Victoria.

Cecil Hannay, commercial fisherman, was fishing with his 45-foot vessel Rosarah, when a large school of porpoises passed at close range. "Why not?" he said, eyeing a small but deadly harpoon he carried among his fishing gear.

One of the large mammals brushed alongside the fishing boat. Fisherman Hannay "let 'er go." The weapon found its mark, and down into the depths raced the stricken porpoise. Attached to the harpoon was a 100-fathom line. The ensuing fight for its life—hopeless from the start—was a vicious but short-lived one. Completely exhausted after futile attempts for freedom, the six-foot porpoise was brought to the surface and hailed aboard.

"The harpooning of porpoises is nothing unusual in more northern waters," said Mr. Hannay. "The fishermen up there catch them in big numbers, and use them for bait." The mammals are plentiful in British Columbia waters, and can be seen off Victoria's shores many times. They are ultra-streamlined, and travel through the water "like bloomin' rockets."

Landed at the fish handling firm of B. W. Brown & Son Ltd., the mammal was delivered to a local fish store, where it will be on display for a limited time.

Ship Will Serve West Coast Ports

Santa Juana, new addition to the Grace Line West Coast fleet, will sail from San Francisco Saturday for the west coast of South America, it was announced yesterday by officials of the company. The ship will serve British Columbia and the west coast of the United States.

Ready to Move Fifty Patients To New Hospital

Transfer of 50 patients from the Gordon Head Health and Occupational Centre to the new Veterans' Hospital on Richmond Avenue here will take place Wednesday, S. H. Okell, deputy assistant administrator for the Department of Veterans' Affairs, said yesterday.

The patients were scheduled to be moved yesterday, he said, but some delay in kitchen installations was responsible for the delay.

Those being moved to Victoria, it was announced, are mostly bed patients. Others at the Gordon Head centre, which is soon to close down, will go to the new health and occupational centre at Burnaby.

Milk Price Controls Are Essential Committee Reports to Legislature

Officials Seek Explanation Of Proposals

Canadian Legion officials in Victoria are striving to clarify the recommendation of an investigating committee that prices of house on the Bracfoot Estate be reduced by 20 per cent.

Authorities here yesterday contacted S. D. Buzzelle, Legion-appointed Vancouver member of the committee, in an effort to get his interpretation of the clause in the report recommending a 20 per cent reduction.

L. G. Scott, Victoria member of the committee, appointed by the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council, has made his position clear to the effect that the reduction should be to the price of the house.

Walter S. Woods, deputy minister of veterans' affairs, stated Friday that J. Y. McCarter, chairman of the investigating committee, had informed him personally that the committee did not mean that the net cost to the veteran be reduced by 20 per cent, but that the gross cost to the director (Gordon Murchison) be so reduced.

Mr. Woods pointed out that in the case of a $7,000 home the act provided a conditional grant of $1,400, which represented 20 per cent, thus taking care of the committee's recommendations.

Informed of this interpretation of the recommendation, Mr. Scott immediately denied that the clause was to be so interpreted. Said Mr. Scott: "Our recommendations were that the cost of the house and the house alone, not the property, be reduced 20 per cent." He reaffirmed his stand on the situation again yesterday.

Meanwhile, Bracfoot tenants, Legion officials and the Citizens' Rehabilitation Council are waiting to hear from Mr. Buzzelle and Mr. McCarter before they take any action.

Canadian Legion Official Robert Knight said last night: "It is a plain case of 'hedging' on the part of Mr. Woods and his associates. However, we will take no action until we hear the opinion of Mr. Buzzelle."

Controls over milk prices set up under the Milk Act passed by the Legislature last year are favorable to both the producer and the consumer, according to a finding of the Legislature's committee on agriculture presented to the House yesterday.

Its work for the session ended, the committee formally reported to the House yesterday that it had discussed controls with Ernest C. Carr, one-man milk board for the Province, and concluded that controls were essential.

The committee also endorsed the following recommendations by the advisory board of Farmers' Institutes:

1. That the Government establish an agricultural college in the Interior, similar to that at Olds, Alta.

2. That the impounding and destruction of wild horses be permitted east of the Kootenays.

3. That the Dominion Government be urged to see that seed and fertilizer are sold only in new sacks, to prevent the spread of crop diseases.

4. That payment for Government land-clearing assistance be spread over five years, instead of the present two-year limit.

5. That coloring of gasoline for agriculture purposes be reinstated.

6. That stockbreeders and farmers generally be represented on the game board.

7. That bounties on predatory animals be increased to $50 for wolves, $40 for cougars, and $5 all year round for coyotes.

The report said the bill now before the House to create a professional act covering the practice of agrology had been endorsed by the committee, with three members dissenting.

Dates Announced For Campaign

"Clean Up-Paint Up Week" will be observed in Greater Victoria from May 10 to May 24, officers of the Junior Chamber of Commerce announced last night.

The drive here will be conducted by the Junior Chamber and will be run in conjunction with the national drive, it was announced.

Manufacturing plants, waterfront concerns and all businesses will be contacted and reminded of the two-week clean-up drive.

The Junior Chamber will also be in charge of street and store decoration for May 24.

Nations or Pawns?

President Truman's declaration implying that the United States is interested in keeping the Dardanelles open and will assist Greece and Turkey, if necessary, against any outside pressure which might cause them to suffer any diminution in their national sovereignty, was timed, no doubt, to coincide with the opening of the Foreign Ministers' Conference at Moscow. It has come a little late. Ten countries have already suffered considerable diminution of their independence, stretching in an unbroken line from the Baltic to the Mediterranean. So far as the world can see, they are taking their time from the Kremlin. It will be difficult to stand firm on two, while ten have been passed up.

In a sense, the United States is saying in its foreign policy today what Great Britain has said for generations, and what the United Nations has been trying to make good in the immediate postwar period. It is that every nation has a right to self-determination; that, within its own borders, its affairs are its own; that wartime regimes, in giving way to civil regimes, must abide by the rules of the country, and respect a free and secret ballot. It has been observable for some time past that that was not what was really happening. Country after country was holding elections in which minority rule came into an almost armed state of power.

Finland, Latvia, Esthonia, Lithuania, Poland, Czecho-Slovakia, Bulgaria, Rumania, Yugoslavia and Albania have given some evidence that they are now facing East, not West. Had the United States spoken sooner, had the United Nations had the force of unbroken world opinion behind it, there would be small need now to make a stand on a principle which was set up at the start and which should have been adhered to rigidly from that day forward. The declaration coming now reads like a manoeuvre in power politics, whereas in fact it is in defence of a basic principle of the United Nations Charter — that all nations shall be free and independent of coercion from without.

Reports and Reports

Effort of the part of the Dominion Government to cover one set of investigation reports with another in connection with the Braefoot settlement under the Veterans Land Act have not altogether succeeded. The veterans, at all events, have studied both reports and are awaiting action on the right one. That is the report which states that the costs of some of these houses was above what an ordinary veteran should be asked to pay, and that a 20 per cent reduction in that dwelling charge should be made by the Government now. The Government may dodge the issue, but the facts are there, and they are plain.

The initial undertaking by the Dominion to put right whatever was faulty in connection with the building of any such dwellings still stands. That, however, is not enough. It is idle to attempt to put such houses into the hands of veterans at or even near a value of $7,000 apiece. Canadian battle veterans were promised their homes for $4,800, and a good deal of promotional literature was turned out by the Government setting out that fact. Well, the time has come to perform; to pick up the promises that were made to these men. Any attempt to play off one report against another, and to say that nothing further need now be done will, of course, fail.

The Canadian Legion is on sound ground when it insists, as it is insisting, upon substantial justice being done to all veterans who have contracted for homes under governmental schemes. They are entitled to wholly habitable dwellings at a fair and reasonable cost to themselves. What benefits they may derive 10 or 15 years from now under another arrangement have nothing to do with the case. It is the initial cost, in many instances, that presses, and that fact is now before Parliament with documentary evidence in support. It is clearly up to Veterans Affairs Minister Mackenzie to take the next step, and that step should be right down the line of the impartial investigation reluctantly tabled in the House on the insistence of Major-General G. R. Pearkes, V.C.

Answering Questions

It is the public's right that their parliamentary representatives should be able to ask questions of governmental departments, but it can be expensive. One question asked in the House of Commons last week will cost an estimated $17,000 to answer. Others may cost anywhere from $5 to $5,000 before the wants of the questioner are satisfied. The compilation of returns sought by members may take weeks or even months in some instances, and involve the keeping of extensive records and the use of extra clerical help. It is reported there have been about 600 questions placed on the order paper at the present session of Parliament.

On the whole, however, some such expenditure is unavoidable, although the cost of the odd question may be out of proportion to the value of the answer. Government is public business, and the Administration must be in a position to supply any legitimate information asked. That is the democratic way of government. It is worth retaining. The knowledge that members may query any fact, incident or policy is a safeguard in the public interest. It prevents practices which a government might prefer to hide were they not liable to sudden accounting. It ensures in so far as possible that no subterfuges may go unchallenged. It tends to keep governments alert and responsive to public opinion.

There should be no obligation of ... on members not to ask foolish questions simply for the sake of asking them. The bill of costs need not be unlimited. No question running up an expense of $17,000, for example, should be asked unless it is important to the nation that it be answered. Extracting information merely for the record if the record is not thereby benefitted is a waste of time and money. The public is prepared to bear the expense of this practice because its value in the long run outweighs the cost. That is not to say that it favors needless extravagance or misuse of the privilege.

Canadian Fire Fighters

By and large, with the exception of some slight discrepancies here and there, this country has acknowledged the debt it owes to those of its citizens who donned a uniform during the war. The sacrifices some of them made cannot be repaired other than in the hearts of Canadians; but from a material standpoint this country has done fairly with its returned veterans in the matter of rehabilitation benefits. There is one group, however, to whom the country owes a debt which is still unpaid. That is the Corps of Canadian Fire Fighters; the 408 firemen from this country who went overseas.

These men were recruited to serve in the Battle of Britain, a task which they performed with gallantry and great credit. All over England they took part in subduing fires wrought by enemy action, suffering some fatalties and having many wounded or injured. They won acclaim from the fire services of the United Kingdom, to whom they were a valuable adjunct. They served as part of the Canadian Army, at army rate of pay, receiving army rations and being subject to army discipline.

Before going overseas they were told officially that they and their families would receive exactly the same treatment as the armed forces. Last year a House of Commons committee on veterans' affairs recommended to Parliament that they should be accorded the full benefit of the governmental rehabilitation program, equal in all respects to former members of the three armed services. So far, the Government have not seen fit to implement this recommendation. They should make amends at the present session of Parliament by bringing the ex-fire fighters within the scope of all veterans' privileges.

This small group of Canadians, who served as firemen were part of the war strength this country sent overseas. There can be no reason for any discrimination against them. They represented the Dominion with credit abroad. Individual Canadians will expect them to be treated like all other servicemen.

Island Roads

In so far as one is able to gather, the Provincial Government have no new plans under way for Vancouver Island's road system. There is to be a little patching at points, a new bridge or two to replace defective structures, some new construction on existing highways, but little if anything beyond that. This is the more remarkable in a year in which the Government will want three cents more on the gasoline tax, a 20 per cent advance in motor licence registrations, and has laid before the Legislature plans to spend somewhere between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000 on roads, bridges and the like. There will be some disappointment that out of all these sums Vancouver Island maintenance votes approximate $500,000, with capital outlays by no means clear as yet. A scenic loop road south of the Alberni Canal on Vancouver Island, the West Coast highway, and many of the dreams of the past appear as if they will remain in that category for a while yet. Yet 175,000 people on Vancouver Island will continue to contribute their full share of revenues to the Province, whether it is to come back in roads or not.

Seen in Passing

With $58,870 in hand, the Greater Victoria objective of $65,000 in the Canadian Red Cross drive is coming well into sight. This is the final week, and it would help a good deal if those who are intending to contribute, but have not yet found time to do so, would take that action now. The headquarters of the drive is at Prince Robert House, Douglas Street. There is no more worthy service in all of the land.

The Pacific Era

Frank M. Kelley

While most European and Asiatic peoples are at present troubled with dire circumstances, for which all mankind must accept responsibility in greater or lesser degree, the entire Western Hemisphere remains comparitively free from such physical and political tribulations as now dominate much of the Old World scene.

No one should really imagine for a moment that what is now transpiring in the other hemispheres will continue indefinitely. There will come a period of saturation in time, when men will realise the folly of persecuting one another for the sake of ideologies, at best but brief manifestations of unrest in the endless quest of humanity for what may turn out to be an unattainable goal —perfection.

Maybe it will be America's fate to escape the trials prevailing in most old lands at the moment; but it will take some open-minded leadership to provide benevolent direction to the sorely-tried nations without becoming too far involved in the revolution proceeding.

Apart from any altruistic motive which might in part be responsible for America's interest in assisting in bringing about peaceful conditions on the far sides of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, all of North America, in order to make any efforts practical, must be the clearing-house for immense quantities of all manner of merchandise, which will in the end undoubtedly be the all-important factor in tending to make man, individually and collectively, more kindly towards his kind, no matter which way he is traveling.

CANADA CAN PLAY ROLE

In the practical rehabilitation of a war-torn world, with its people trying to get a clearer view of the really decent ways of life, Canada can play a most important role, particularly in the Orient. While its 12,000,000 people cannot hope to be so effective as 140,000,000 there will be a demand for every ton of merchandise the people of Canada can produce for many years to come in what is commonly known as the Pacific Littoral.

Probably the Pacific area has greater potentialities for the outlet of Canada's products than Europe can possibly present. It has an enormous aggregate of human life, counting India almost half the total population of the globe. There are 450,000,000 people in China. Once peace comes to Asia there will be markets for all the produce Canada can turn out for years to come.

Even if the man-power potential for industry is great and practically unlimited among the billion humans living between Vladivostock and Bombay, it will take some generations before it can be brought to anything like peak-producing power, according to experts, and by that time general standards of living should be such that the competition need not interfere with the movement of goods and the general happiness of a peaceful world.

All this will mean a two-way commerce. When trade is moving smoothly, Orient countries will be producing raw materials as well as manufactured goods highly useful to a Canada of expanding industrial stature. The natural resources of Orient countries, while a complete survey has never been made, are known to be immense. China has, so far determined, some 230 billion tons of coal, about one and a half billion barrels of oil, about the same tonnage in iron ores. Many other economical minerals show huge tonnages, while the streams of China can generate about 60,000,000 horsepower.

Trad with China, Japan, Burma, Thailand, Ma a, the Dutch East Indies and the Philippines has been more or less profitable before the beginning of the World War. Men of vision years ago talked of a "Pacific era." Evidence of trade potentials have always been great. Theodore Roosevelt was a great believer in the Pacific's future development, and as long ago as 1853 William H. Seward, one of the founders of the United States Republican party, went on record with these words: "The Pacific Ocean will become the chief theatre of events in the world's great hereafter."

AS GREAT AS DESIRED

All of which means that countries touching on the Pacific and ready to share in the commerce which will inevitably develop between America and Asia, particularly in the next decade or so, can reap great benefits. United States Pacific Coast ports appreciate the possibilities and are making preparations to profit through them. Surely Canada, which must export now to maintain its present standard of living, will also make an effort to get a share of this commerce, which can be just as great and as important as the Canadian people desire it to be.

If the Canadian will to grow commercially great persists, all the ports which can be developed economically on this coast of Canada should be getting in shape for the coming of the Pacific era. It has been stated from time to time that the Port of Victoria can participate advantageously in import and export shipments. This has been proved in a limited way in the past, and at this time requires a bit of united effort on the part of the city to insure a continuance of the trade and an ever-increasing tonnage of merchandise over local docks. It would be good business now to get ready for the traffic that must develop in the not-too-distant future; that is, if all the indications can be appreciated, and the thoughts dominating the minds of traders and shipping men are correct.

British Flying Clubs Study Training Costs

By E. C. SHEPHERD
Aviation Expert, London Sunday Times

North American Newspaper Alliance

LONDON, March 24 (By Cable).—During the coming year Britain can be expected to tackle the subject of private flying from two important angles. One concerns the revival of light aircraft clubs which formerly received assistance from the Government, but since the war have had none. The other is the question of raising the standards of skill and training required of those holding the amateur pilot's licence.

The two matters are related, for if the licence standards are raised too high few people in Britain can afford to learn. At present the cost of learning to fly is high and the qualifications for the amateur's licence are low. Flying instruction costs $12 to $14 an hour, but the pupil gets his licence after three hours' solo and a few simple tests.

Recommendations put forward by the personnel licensing division of the International Civil Aviation Organization would require the pupil to do 40 hours of dual and solo flying, besides three hours of cross-country flying, and two landings away from home before he could get his amateur's licence. That licence would be of a limited character and would not allow him to fly in poor visibility. For that class of flying he would need to have flown 150 hours and have had training in instrument flying.

If Britain by her membership of the Civil Aviation Organization were obliged to accept these recommendations forthwith, the flying club movement would suffer a heavy blow. The cost of the limited licence would be in the neighborhood of $480 as against about half that sum at present. Considerations of this kind are being explained to the Civil Aviation Organization in Montreal by the secretary-general of the Royal Aero Club. Before Britain could reasonably put such recommendations into effect, she would be obliged to find some way of cheapening the cost of flying training and the cost of solo flying.

Cheaper aircraft would help the movement. There has been some hope that the new Nuffield 100-h.p. aero-engine might ultimately be marked at about $800, but that would depend on finding a market for an initial batch of at least 1,000.

As the flying clubs stand at this moment, there is no prospect of their being able to afford 1,000 new aircraft, nor are there likely to be enough people willing to buy the hundreds of training aircraft left over at about $3,200 each. Some sale might be found for them in Australia and South Africa. If a scheme can be worked out whereby an attractive and safe type can be produced at about $1,200, there would be a case for proposing that Britain's Government should back an order for 1,000.

Before the new pilot regulations are put into force something cheaper still will be needed. Most pupils become skilled enough to make their first solo flight after 12 to 16 hours of dual instruction. Under the new rules those pupils will have to do more than 20 hours' additional flying before they can get the limited good-weather licence. If there is a suitable small single-seater for this class of flying, they should be able to save a good many dollars on the cost of getting that licence.

There were aircraft of this type in Britain before the war. Some were powered gliders. They used automobile engines converted to drive airscrews. They carried no airworthiness certificates and they were restricted to an area near their home airfields. Since the war, aircraft of this class have not been allowed to fly in Britain.

The question is whether low-powered singe-seat aircraft can be produced at $1,600 or $2,000 each for student pilots.

Here again the question hinges largely on the engine. Without some relaxation of British airworthiness standards there seems no prospect of making engines at much less than $12 per h.p. unless there are orders for extremely large numbers. Bound though most of the nations will be to standards laid down by the Civil Aviation Organization, some means of producing light aircraft cheaply will have to be found by those countries which need for various reasons to encourage their private flying movements; and the manifest desire of the British Government to do something in this direction may lead to the appearance of an important new class of small aircraft in Europe.

Britain invented the flying club and the British Government took the movement under its wing with direct subsidies from 1924 onwards. The growth of commercial air transport and the need for more stringent safety measures on the air routes must lead to some raising of the standards of skill and experience among private pilots, yet Britain would suffer if there were no nursery in which professional pilots of the future could try themselves out. The flying clubs provide that opportunity.

The five-heart contract was unmanageable because of the trump break, and South went down 800 points. The five-club contract that South was in (briefly) would have been easy to make.

Obviously, South had bidding difficulties almost from the start. Certainly, his double of two diamonds was beyond criticism, since he was void of North's bid suit, had considerable strength in hearts and clubs, and a couple of potential diamond tricks. When, however, North took out the double—the proper action, incidentally, with his freak distribution—and at the same time, by jumping, indicated a game-going hand, South scarcely could be expected to pass simply because he had no fit with spades. North's takeout announced extreme shortness in diamonds; presumably, then, he could support one of South's two suits. South bid the major first because game would be cheaper in hearts, but when he was doubled he ran to his longer club suit.

North might well have considered that while South's heart suit might be only four cards, he would not have run out at the five-level to a four-card suit. Therefore, North should have passed to five clubs.

Will Buy Meters—Two hundred and ninety-five water meters will be ordered at once by Saanich. The council decided on this step last night after receiving recommendations from Clerk Cowper. The manufacturing concern which provided the water meters discarded by the municipality some years ago has agreed to give Saanich a credit of $1,000.

The Drydock—We learn that only one tender for the construction of this work was received by the Government. It was filed by Mr. Bulkley, C.E., who is understood to represent a company of English capitalists, and who has carefully examined Constance and other coves with a view to the selection of the site.

England's Labor Government seems to be hard put to keep the people laboring. . . . Kansas legislators are interested in a bill requiring a man to have $1,000 before he can get married. If such a requirement existed in the days of our grandparents, few of us would be here today. . . . Fidelity is seven-tenths of business success. . . . The less we have, the easier we share it. . . . From the code of ethics of the Seattle Real Estate Board: "The price at which a realtor offers property should not be higher than that which the owner has openly agreed to take." . . . From The Financial Post: "Municipal taxpayers throughout Canada are receiving sad news. Tax rates are being raised, and municipal expenditure is going up. Increases are coming at a time when municipal revenues may be approaching their peak. Prudent municipal officials will carefully watch their budgets. Capital expenditures which can be deferred until the huge backlog of demand in their lines is more nearly filled should be deferred both in the interests of the nation's economy and from the standpoint of costs. Taxpayers should be kept fully informed, and given the fullest possible information regarding expenditures." It is only by a careful examination of all expenditures that municipalities will be able to keep their present high financial rating and consolidate the improvement in their finances." . . . An Australian newspaper carried the following item tucked away at the bottom of a column: "Lincoln wrote the Gettysburg address while riding from Washington to Gettysburg on the back of an envelope." Envelopes must have been endowed with magic in those days, or was it a flying carpet?

FOOD IN BRITAIN

Sir,—May I congratulate The Colonist on the timely editorial "Floods in Britain," in the issue of March 21. It seems to me, also, quite incredible that more is not being done. The people of Britain did their best to give hospitality to Canadian forces stationed there, even depriving themselves of their own meagre rations to do so. I was astounded to read in the March number of The Legionaire that an organization called "Canadian Care, 193 Sparks Street, Ottawa, and which has been well investigated by the Dominion Command of the Canadian Legion, is giving veterans the opportunity of sending ham, bacon, corn, preserved butter, coffee, chocolate, marmalade and all-wool blankets to France, Belgium and The Netherlands, and pointedly states that the offer does not apply to the United Kingdom.

FRIENDS OF DEVON

Sir,—I am quoting below from a communication I have received from Colonel M. Trew, of Westerlands, Silverton, Devon, England. I am wondering whether an excerpt of this could be put into the columns of your paper as no doubt there are a number of people within the province who would like to correspond with persons from Devon. I am advising Colonel Drew that I have passed forward his suggestions to you and that I shall advise him of any result therefrom. Perhaps you would be kind enough to arrange for clippings to be sent to me should you think fit to publish the idea.

"I have been advised by Mr. Dauphinee of the Canadian Press, to write to you about a project I am trying to initiate. Briefly, it is an attempt to promote an exchange of news and correspondence between people at home and those abroad in the Empire. I have necessarily to limit my activities, so am confining the scope of the idea to Devon so far as this country is concerned, and British Columbia, New Zealand and West Australia, all of which I have visited myself.

"I have communicated my idea to the press in Devon, and it is apparent that there are a number of Devonians who are anxious to hear more of these parts of the Empire and to exchange newspapers and letters with someone out there. I have made an initial approach to the West Australia press and have received applications from residents out there to be put into touch with an opposite number in Devon. I am taking similar steps about New Zealand and would be glad of your help so far as British Columbia is concerned. Judging by the obvious interest displayed by those who have already written to me from different parts of Devon as well as from West Australia I feel that this is worth the work entailed."

The Time used is Pacific standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill at the Esquimalt Drydock at any time, add 20.6 feet to the height of high water as above given.

Ottawa Asked to Fight Rise in Cost-of-Living

OTTAWA, March 24 (CP). — The most important aspect of the Government's control legislation is its bearing on the Canadian cost of living, Stanley Knowles (C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre) said tonight in the Commons.

Speaking on the resolution preliminary to the main control bill, Mr. Knowles said there was no doubt [illegible] Government had a definite responsibility to do something about the rise in that index.

The prices of various essential commodities, such as shortening, meat, tea and coffee and soap, recently had advanced even under the controls already in existence. There also had been rises in the prices of clothing, particularly children's clothing.

This indicated it was necessary that Parliament "do something" to hold down the rise in the cost of living.

Some newspapers were suggesting that Canada follow the United States in abolishing controls but reports from across the border indicated prices still were rising and that there was danger of inflation in that country.

Mr. Knowles said he did not think it was necessary to interfere with the freedom and liberty of the individual to take steps to control cost of living.

There was a too-prevalent belief that it was only necessary to protect the individual against the state but that was not sufficient protection. The individual's life depended as well upon whether there was employment, markets and other benefits in the economic field.

Patrick Ashby (S.C., Edmonton East) compared the control bill with "bureaucratic blanc-mange," which "if fed to unsuspecting students would turn them into bureaucrats."

He said some people regarded taxation as a "blessing" but he regard- [illegible]

Turning to "bureaucrats," he said Canada had a national debt of $93,000,000 at the time of Confederation. This figure grew to $2,000,000,000 in 1914, $3,000,000,000 in 1939 and $17,000,000,000 in 1946.

"And these people want us to turn controls over to them," he said.

The bureaucrats were "sabotaging" the national resources of the Dominion, which was essentially a wealthy country. They were keeping a record of every person in Canada with the aim of establishing Socialism in the country.

Arthur Ross (P.C., Souris) compared prices for farm products in Canada and the United States.

A Canadian farmer in Manitoba sold his wheat for $1.20 a bushel, while just across the border an American farmer obtained $2.42 a bushel. The price differences were similar for oats, barley, cattle and hogs.

At the same time, the Canadian farmer paid more for farm machinery and motor cars than did the American. The general standard-of-living also was higher in the United States.

Mr. Ross said he agreed that big business was in favor of controls because they had profited from them during the war. Veterans were unable to establish themselves in business because of controls.

Joseph Burton (C.C.F., Humboldt) said controls were needed just as much to win the peace as they were to win the war.

He said that had the Government not imposed controls during the war period Canada's road to victory would have been much more difficult.

Mr. Burton took issue with a statement by Lawrence Skey (P.C., Toronto Trinity) in which the Toronto member said the Roman Catholic Church held the belief that a person could not be a true Catholic and a true Socialist.

He said the church did not approve a Socialism which interfered with a person's religious beliefs and the ownership of private property.

"I get my religious instructions from the church, and I don't have to go to Tory Toronto to get it," said Mr. Burton, a Roman Catholic.

Last Viceroy Pledges Help

NEW DELHI, March 24 (AP).—Admiral Viscount Mountbatten was sworn in as India's last Viceroy today and promptly broke precedent by making a speech from the vice-regal throne in which he appealed for co-operation in finding a solution to India's problems "within the next few months."

Mountbatten took the oath in the presence of princes in gay turbans, soberly-clad members of the Cabinet, and about 400 guests gathered in Durbar reception hall.

The new Viceroy, wearing his white admiral's uniform, said:

"This is not a normal vice-royalty on which I am embarking. His Majesty's Government is resolved to transfer the power by June, 1948, and since new constitutional arrangements must be made and many complicated questions of administration resolved—all of which will take time to put into effect—this means a solution must be reached within the next few months.

"I believe that every political leader in India feels as I do the urgency of the task before us. I hope soon to be in close consultation with them, and I will give them all the help I can."

"Meanwhile," he continued, "everyone must do what he can to avoid any word or action which might lead to further bitterness or add to the toll of innocent victims."

"I am under no illusions about the difficulty of my task," Viscount Mountbatten said. "I shall need the greatest goodwill possible, and I am asking India today for that goodwill."

Meanwhile, renewed outbreaks between old Delhi's religious communities resulted today in the imposition of a week-long 8 p.m. to 7 a.m. curfew, pre-publication censorship of news about communal disturbances in Delhi Province, and renewed patroling by the police and military.

Veterans Urge Decent Housing

VANCOUVER, March 24 (CP).—Members of the housing and rehabilitation committee of new Veterans Branch 168 of the Canadian Legion charged here during the week-end that veterans of Canada were "betrayed" by the Government which failed to provide adequate housing.

They called for a "bold program of housing construction" by the Dominion Government in co-operation with all "competent agencies" either public or private.

Calling on Ottawa to accept low-rental housing as "its rightful responsibility," the committee urged the setting up of a Crown company which would give top priority to immediate construction of low-rental homes and provide every veteran with "decent and adequate housing."

Korean Problem Requires Funds

WASHINGTON, March 24 (AP).—State Under-Secretary Acheson said today that the United States must invest funds to put Southern Korea on a sound economic basis because Russia has blocked any agreement for a unified government of that country.

"We have attempted for more than a year to reach an agreement with Soviet Russia for a unified government of the country, but have not been able to do so," Acheson commented. "Failure presents a very serious problem."

Victory Booty To Be Delayed

OTTAWA, March 24 (CP).—For the information of any navy veterans who have been wondering what they will do with the booty of victory—officially known as prize money—the word from Navy Headquarters is that the war was so complicated it may take months of high-strata international dealings before the money starts to flow.

Headquarters gave that answer to reports that Canada was about ready to pay off all her sailor veterans, so much to each man regardless of whether he had been in on the seizure of an enemy ship or not.

A spokesman said the Anglo-Canadian-American naval efforts were so closely interlocked at times that it would be highly difficult to decide who should get what out of certain hauls.

Proposal Brings Stinging Rebuke

LONDON, March 24 (CP).—British Government sources said today they were "surprised and disappointed" at a Washington proposal that Britain cede Cyprus to Greece.

One official, who refused to be identified, said: "It will be a relief to all of us in this country when some people in the United States overcome their tendency to be so liberal with territory that does not belong to them."

Cripps Tells Commons Trade Growth Desirable

LONDON, March 24 (CP). — Sir Stafford Cripps told the House of Commons today that Commonwealth countries must surrender some Imperial preferences in return for freer world trade but the bargains must be mutually satisfactory and shocks to the economies of the Dominions avoided if possible.

General world reduction of tariffs, freer trade and full employment is the object of international talks opening in Geneva April 10. Commonwealth representatives now are in London conferring on proposed tariff concessions desired from countries like the United States and what Imperial preferences should be relaxed in return.

Sir Stafford, president of the board of trade, declared to the House:

1. Commonwealth trade relations are changing. Many Dominions have become manufacturers and desire to protect their industries against British goods. All need a variety of markets and participation in world trade expansion was desirable.

2. No industrial country could afford to open its markets if it found markets in other countries closed to it. The proposed International Trade Charter under an International Trade Conference would establish desirable trading rules.

3. After consultation with Commonwealth countries, Britain would be ready to consider Imperial preference reductions and the units of the Commonwealth would remain the judges as to whether counter-concessions offered were sufficient. There was no prospect of elimination of Imperial preference as a whole but some particular items might go.

Sir Stafford declared:

We shall certainly not give away the interests of Commonwealth countries in reducing preferences enjoyed by them in the United Kingdom market and we are equally sure that we can count on them to treat us in the same way and not give away preferences we value in their markets."

AUCKLAND, N.Z., (CP). — Mrs. E. M. Morse, a 72-year-old Australian, is unimpressed with the speed of modern travel. She saved for most of her life and when finally she set out on a trip her boat had to travel via New Zealand where a waterfront dispute delayed her for more than a month.

Labor Objects To Draft Bill

PORT ALBERNI, March 24.—Following a meeting of all trade unions in Alberni district, members wired James Mowat, M.L.A. for Alberni district and Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, requesting that the draft bill of the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act be amended so as to be more favorable to labor.

Delegates to the 1947 labor lobby at Victoria, said at least five features of the act were unfavorable to labor unions.

Victoria High School Students to Present "Our Town"

—Colonist Photo.

"Our Town," one of the most human and moving plays written in the past ten years, will be presented by the Victoria High School Drama Club on March 28 and 29. This dramatically different theatrical production, conceived by Thornton Wilder, Pulitzer Prize winner, portrays the lives and loves of humble townspeople staged in an unusual and sparkling manner. The above picture depicts a portion of the cast in one of the many imaginative sets of the play. Those present, left to right, are: Jim Henning, Harry Frackson, Diana Sawyer, John Mackie, Phyllis Calvert, Nora Wolfe, Pat Meagher, Helena Hunkin, Victoria Mitchell and Melville Mendum.

Premier John Hart presented the couple with a sterling silver tea service and tray on behalf of the members of the Legislature and Hon. Herbert Anscomb proposed the toast.

* * *

The ladies of the Ready-to-Help Circle of the Kings' Daughters were entertained recently by Mrs. M. Osterhout at her home, 1028 Linden Avenue. During the afternoon Mrs. William Russell made a presentation to Mrs. Charles Edwards on behalf of the member, for her daughter, Miss Mary Edwards, who is leaving for England shortly to be married. Guests included Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mrs. A. E. Perry, Mrs. J. W. Cameron, Mrs. W. Winsmore, Mrs. R. Ford, Mrs. J. Fox, Mrs. R. Graves, Mrs. Haynes, Mrs. Kingham, Mrs. Lister, Mrs. William Russell, Mrs. W. Spry and Miss I. Cathcart.

San Diego Trip Follows Wedding

Victoria West United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday evening when Esther Margaret Mary Curtal, only daughter of Mrs. T. Bowes, 310 Edward Street, was united in marriage to Ronald Joseph Bland, second son of Mrs. Margaret Bland, 533 Langford Street. Rev. J. C. Jackson read the nuptial service, and Mrs. David Mowat presided at the organ. During the signing of the register, Mrs. E. McGinigle sang "Because."

The bride, accompanied by her brother, Mr. W. J. Bowes, was lovely in a white satin gown, fashioned with a long train featuring a lace insert, sweetheart neckline and lily point sleeves. Her shoulder veil was held under a sweetheart headdress trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore a gold locket and chain and carried a bouquet of red roses and lilies of the valley, to complete her costume.

Mrs. H. Graas, wearing turquoise blue chiffon, with pink satin headdress trimmed with sequins and pink shoulder veil, was the matron of honor. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and mauve stocks. The junior bridesmaids were Miss Myrna Curtal and Miss Connie Samson, dressed in long pink net frocks over satin with puff sleeves worn with blue mitts, and wreaths of blue flowers with blue chapel veils. Little Joanne Kells wearing an orchid net frock over satin with wreath of pink carnations was the flower girl. All had Colonist bouquet of Spring flowers to harmonize with their dresses.

The best man was Mr. Alfred Bland, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Mr. L. Holman, Mr. H. Graas and Mr. T. Byson.

At the reception held in the C.P.R. Social Club, Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Bland, mothers of the couple assisted in welcoming the guests. The lace-covered table was decorated with four vases of pink carnations and ferns, and centred with the three-tiered cake, surrounded with folds of pink tulle. Mr. G. Gardiner, postmaster, proposed the toast.

For a honeymoon trip by motor to San Diego, California, the bride chose a light blue suit with three-quarter length coat trimmed with fur, brown hat and accessories, and a corsage of red roses and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Bland will make their home in Victoria.

MONTREAL (CP) — Humanization of man, to show him the spiritual ideals without which neither happiness nor success are genuine and permanent was seen as the real problem of modern education by D. S. S. Mackenzie, associate editor of The Gazette when he addressed the St. James Literary Society.

Dr. H. E. Johnston Married at Home

At a pretty wedding which took place on Saturday at 1 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Johnston, 2633 Beach Drive, Helen Elizabeth Hughes Johnston, M.D., exchanged nuptial vows with John Alder Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rowat Stanley Hunter, Vancouver, Rev. Hugh A. McLeod performed the ceremony before the fireplace, which was banked with plum blossoms, pussy willow, forsythia and daffodils. Mrs. S. H. Mooney played the traditional music, and while the register was being signed Miss Lorna Burns sang "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white jersey crepe with high-necked, gracefully-draped bodice and skirt; tiny self-covered buttons fastened the shoulders of the lily point sleeves. She wore a headdress of lilies of the valley and carried a bouquet of red and white roses and lilies of the valley. Pearl earrings, the gift of the groom, were her only ornaments, and completed her ensemble.

Mrs. F. Murton, sister of the groom, as matron of honor, was gowned in floor-length turquoise sheer with headdress of pink carnations. Her bouquet was composed of stocks, tulips and carnations in shades of pink.

The best man was Dr. Struthers Gunn, Vancouver.

At the reception, Mrs. Johnston wearing a French model gown of powder blue crepe with corsage of pale pink rosebuds, and Mrs. Hunter, smart in wisteria crepe with corsage of yellow roses, received the guests with the young couple. The table, covered with a Madeira cut-work cloth and lighted by white tapers, was centred by the three-tiered cake bedded in maidenhair fern and heather. A tiny vase of pink and white heather and snowdrops surmounted the cake. Mr. S. H. Mooney proposed the health of the bride.

Leaving for Vancouver, the bride wore a pin-point brown and cream shepherd's check suit with model hat in tones of brown, alligator accessories, and a corsage of pink roses.

The bride, who graduated in medicine last year from the University of Toronto, has been doing intern work at the Vancouver General Hospital, and plans to take a year's post-graduate work in pathology.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter will make their home in Vancouver.

The Turks call the turkey the American bird since its original habitat is North America.

Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

MR. and Mrs. J. W. Skinner, Langford Lake, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday at a dinner held at Terry's dining-room when covers were laid for 40 guests. Following their marriage at Kirkcaldy, Scotland, Mr. and Mrs. Skinner spent 15 years in Nyassaland, Central Africa, where Mr. Skinner was on the staff of the African Lakes Corporation. They came to Canada in 1912, and lived in Winnipeg until 1937, later coming to British Columbia. They have one son, Mr. Jack Skinner, of Winnipeg, and two grandchildren.

ENTERTAIN MEMBERS

Mrs. H. Barraclough was hostess to members of the W.B.A. Pioneer Club at her home on Friday afternoon. T. B. Dresser, president, conducted a short business meeting when plans were made to hold a card party on April 14. Those present included Mrs. J. Addison, Mrs. G. Andrews, Mrs. G. Brown, Mrs. H. Dresser, Mrs. W. Henson, Mrs. S. Keefe, Mrs. F. Baillies, Mrs. S. McNeil, Mrs. O. Stephen, Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. H. Thompsett, Mrs. W. Trowsdale and Mrs. H. White.

Doris Tams Bride Of A. Richardson

St. Paul's Naval and Garrison Church was the scene of a quiet wedding on Saturday afternoon when Doris Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Tams, 1237 Juno Street, exchanged nuptial vows with Allen Gordon Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Richardson. Rev. Dr. H. H. Creal officiated and Mr. W. Darvill played the traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a two-piece pale blue dress with beige and blue flowered hat and harmonizing accessories. Her only jewelry was a pendant, a gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of red roses, white carnations and heather.

Miss Molly Tams was her sister's attendant, wearing a rose-colored dress with pearl grey accessories and carried a bouquet of iris and white carnations.

Mr. J. S. Richardson, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where Mrs. Tams, in a figured crepe dress and corsage bouquet of pale pink carnations, welcomed the guests.

The young couple left for a honeymoon in Seattle, and upon their return they will make their home in Vancouver.

Consumer Branch of Wartime Prices And Trade Board Continues to June

The Consumer Branch of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board will continue its work until June it was decided at a meeting of the Women's Regional Advisory Committee held in the Belmont Building Monday afternoon with Mrs. Paul Smith in the chair.

Mrs. Smith explained that between now and the end of May important decisions will have been made by the Honourable C. D. Howe as to what controls will be continued throughout 1947 and during the next two months, Regional Committees are prepared to interpret the effect of these decisions in their communities.

A final letter was received from Miss Harriet Parsons whose resignation has been accepted as head of the Price Study Panel. Miss Parsons will occupy an important position in the Economic Research Council in Ottawa.

Mrs. W. E. Rayfuse submitted the report of the Remake Centres which indicated that the interest of Consumer Branch in this program terminates on March 31. It has been arranged that the work will continue in Victoria under school board auspices.

Upon the announcement of Mr. Donald Gordon's retirement from the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, the meeting passed a resolution expressing sincere appreciation of Mr. Gordon's magnificent leadership in a most difficult field and congratulating him upon his success in maintaining Canada's financial stability throughout war years and afterwards.

At the Theatres

M-G-M Romantic Drama Stars Walter Pidgeon

Marshall Thompson has arrived, cinematically speaking. He has his first screen love affair, and it's with none other than June Allyson.

Thompson is cast as a young navy ensign in M-G-M's dramatic new picture, "The Secret Heart," coming to the Royal screen today with Claudette Colbert, Walter Pidgeon and Miss Allyson in the starring roles.

Others in the cast of "The Secret Heart" include Lionel Barrymore, Robert Sterling, Elizabeth Patterson, Richard Derr and Patricia Medina. The picture was directed by Robert Z. Leonard.

"Brasher Doubloon" Opens at the Dominion

"The Brasher Doubloon," Twentieth Century-Fox's exciting filmization of the Raymond Chandler best seller, "The High Window," opens today at the Dominion Theatre, with George Montgomery and Nancy Guild in starring roles.

In the fast-moving story of a missing rare coin that left a string of murders in its trail, Montgomery is seen as suave, smooth but tough Philip Marlowe, Chandler's celebrated fictional detective. Miss Guild portrays the neurotic young secretary who believes she is a murderess.

CAPITOL THEATRE James Hilton, author of "Good-bye," Mr. Chips" and "Lost Horizon," wrote one of the most fascinating stories about a "perfect crime" ever penned in his novel, "Rage in Heaven." The triumphant M-G-M screen version, co-starring Ingrid Bergman and Robert Montgomery, is now showing at the Capitol Theatre as a deeply human study in character revealing the innermost mental workings of a twisted mind.

OAK BAY THEATRE The services of a genuine hypnologist were sought for the Universal release, "The Seventh Veil," current attraction at the Oak Bay Theatre. In the film, which stars James Mason and Ann Todd, the heroine—a famous classical pianiste—is put under narco-hypnosis by a noted psychiatrist after she has succumbed to illness brought on by nervous despair. Her case yields to treatment, and the story of her career, as told to the specialist, provides the basis of the plot.

PLAZA THEATRE Ann Dvorak and Gail Russell lead Adolphe Menjou a merry chase in Andrew Stone's sparkling new comedy, "The Bachelor's Daughters," now at the Plaza Theatre through United Artists release. Two more "daughters" are Claire Trevor and Jane Wyatt. Billie Burke helps them in their shenanigans by posing as their "mother." The film marks the debut of GI-musician Eugene List, who played at the Potsdam Conference.

YORK THEATRE "Spectre of the Rose," now playing at the York Theatre, is an actor's holiday, which gives each player ample opportunity to display his talents. Two newcomers, Ivan Kirov, with a physique that has Hollywood talking, and Viola Essen, lovely Broadway ballerina, form the romantic team in this tale of half-mad genius who is rightly suspected by the police of having murdered his first wife.

CHARLOTTETOWN (CP).—John McKenzie had an excuse for getting out of the wrong side of bed the other morning. There was no right side. McKenzie's first-floor bedroom was flooded overnight and he landed in water up to his knees when he jumped out of bed.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

THE LISTENER CALLED AN "EAVESDROPPER"

In Saxon times the owners of land were not permitted to build or cultivate to the very edge of their estates, but were enjoined to leave a space at their boundaries which was called the "yfesdrype" (eavesdrip).

The idea of the restriction was to prevent injury to a neighbor's property through the drip of rain-water from the eaves of protecting overhang of the roof of a house. So the strip not built upon became known as the "eaves-drip." Anyone who loitered there was regarded as prying into family affairs and called an "eavesdripper," which in time became "eavesdropper." As Shakespeare put it in Richard III:

"Under our tents I'll play the eavesdropper,
To hear if any mean to shrink from me."

In olden times, eavesdropping there were punishments to fit the crime. A culprit was condemned to stand under the eaves of the house in wet weather, while the rain-water ran in at his neck and out at his heels.

In the famous "Commentaries" of Blackstone there is allusion to this gentry as follows:

"Eavesdroppers, or such as listen under walls, or windows, or the eaves of a house, to harken after discourse and thereupon to frame slanderous and mischevious tales, are common nuisances and presentable at the court-leet; or are indictable at the sessions and punishable by fine and finding sureties for their good behavior."

Hawks' Ace Sniper Wins Scoring Title

Max Bentley Edges Richard by One Point As N.H.L. Teams Wind Up League Schedule

FINAL STANDINGS

	W	L	T	GF	GA	Pts.
Canadiens	34	16	10	189	138	78
Toronto	31	19	10	200	175	72
Boston	30	23	11	190	153	63
Detroit	22	27	11	166	193	55
Rangers	22	32	6	167	196	50
Chicago	19	37	4	193	274	42

Sunday's scores: Rangers 4, Chicago 3; Canadiens 3, Boston 2; Toronto 5, Detroit 3.

Max Bentley won his second consecutive N.H.L. individual scoring championship Sunday as New York Rangers defeated Chicago Black Hawks, 4-3, in the last game of the regular season at New York.

Bentley, scoring once and getting an assist, edged out Maurice (Rocket) Richard, of the league champion Montreal Canadiens, by a single point, 72-71. Richard garnered two assists as Montreal defeated Boston Bruins, 3-2.

The black-haired Chicago centre, who won the crown with 61 points last year, had 29 goals and 43 assists, while Richard wound up with 45 goals and 26 assists.

His feat is remarkable in that Chicago finished last in the league standings and because his linemate and brother, Doug, who helped Max stay on top, hasn't been in action the last few weeks due to an injury.

Sunday's games had no effect on the standings as both Chicago and New York had been eliminated from the play-offs. Bentley's goal and assist came in the lively third period after Rangers had taken a 3-0 lead in the second.

In the play-off preview between Canadiens and Bruins at Boston, the Habitants took an early second-period lead and appeared to have the game well in hand the rest of the way. Jimmy Peters notched Canadiens' first tally and Richard set up goals for Johnny Quilty and Toe Blake during the second and third sessions.

Canadiens' Goalie Bill Durnan officially won the Vezina Trophy with the lowest scored-on average for the fourth straight year.

Milt Schmidt and Frankie Brunsek received awards from Boston fans as the first and second outstanding Bruin performers on home ice.

In the other play-off preview, Toronto Maple Leafs downed Detroit Red Wings, 5-3, in a penalty-punctured contest at Detroit. With tempers flaring and fists flying in every period, the game saw 27 penalties called, a season record and one short of an all-time record. Sports writers at the game were unable to account for the unexpected heat of the contest, opinion being divided between old grudges and a desire to show their Stanley Cup play-off opponents they won't be easy.

Goblins Shut Out Legion Gridders

Oak Bay Goblins marked up their third win in the intermediate Canadian Rugby League by trouncing Legion Bears 11-0, at Central Park on Sunday.

After an uneventful first-half, Goblins began to show some good football in the third-quarter, highlighted by the deadly passing of Bruce McLaren who set up the Goblin's two touchdowns.

McLaren passed to quarter back Jack Uffing on a "sleeper play" and the latter carried the ball across the Legion line for the initial score. With McLaren again tossing and Captain Ken West receiving Goblins racked up their final score.

In the preliminary six-man midget game Oak Bay Goblins defeated St. Louis College 16-5. Johnny Johnson, Bruce Auchinvole and Bob Ray scored for Oak Bay with one conversion completed on a pass from Johnson to Ray. Rob Stevenson scored for St. Louis.

To Play Overtime In N.H.L. Play-Offs

MONTREAL, March 24 (CP).—President Clarence Campbell announced today that overtime will be played in the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup play-off games if teams are tied at the end of the regulation 60 minutes.

Campbell said that further periods of 20 minutes each would be played and the first goal scored in any overtime period would decide the issue. No overtime was played during the regular N.H.L. season.

Racing Season In U.K. Starts

LONDON, March 24 (AP).—They're off tomorrow in the 7½-month flat racing season—saved from any serious interruptions by the avowed necessity of maintaining the reputation of British bloodstock for profitable exports.

With most of Britain's grass tracks reclaimed from wartime use, this is expected to be the biggest season since 1938 despite the changing of some crowd-pulling classics to Saturday to co-operate with the Government production program.

Britain exported £2,500,000 ($10,100,000) worth of bloodstock last year, most of it to dollar countries and the Government wants to keep its ponies on the market.

Major race in the opening meeting on the flat at Lincoln is the one-mile Lincolnshire Handicap — on Wednesday—in which one-eyed Vagabond II from France, is 100 to 8 favorite. Second favorite is Langton Abbott, last year's winner at 100 to 8.

The American-bred Whistling Wind is third choice at 100 to 7. He was trained for the Lincolnshire by running down lanes cleared between snowdrifts in the north.

Fifty-three entries remained at the final acceptance, promising to beat the record field of 37 in 1938. The race will be in a circle instead of the normal straight mile because part of the straight course is under water.

Chicago Fans Top N.H.L. Attendance

NEW YORK, March 24 (AP).—More than 2,500,000 fans witnessed the 189 games played by the National Hockey League which completed its regular season yesterday, according to figures compiled by the Associated Press.

A total of 2,537,223 fans poured through the turnstiles with Chicago luring the most, 521,831, a circuit record.

Following is the breakdown for the 30 home games played by each of the loop's six teams:

Chicago, 521,831; New York, 466,202; Boston, 414,461; Toronto, 410,095; Detroit, 388,291; Montreal, 336,343.

Large Entry List For School Gala

With 270 entries received by club officials, Victoria's 22nd annual school children's swimming gala to be held Friday evening at the Crystal Garden, starting at 7:30 p.m., promises to be one of the best school galas to be held by the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club.

Lampson Street School has the largest entry with 38, followed closely by Willows and Central Junior High. The feature events on the program are the relay events for Grades 7 and 8, with the winning boys' team receiving the Canadian Legion (Britannia Branch) Cup and the girls, the Pendray Cup.

The elementary school winning the most points will receive the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club Trophy and the leading high school the Sir Edward Beatty Trophy. Last year's winners have entered strong teams to retain these cups and have been seen practising during the past few weeks. Points will be given as follows: Three for first, two for second and one for third; while in the relay events, six for first, four for second and two for third.

Aussie Net Stars Sail for Britain

SYDNEY, Australia, March 23 (AP).—John Bromwich and Geoff Brown, members of Australia's Davis Cup team, sailed Saturady for Britain on the start of a six-month expedition which this tennis-mad Commonwealth hopes will end with the huge International Bowl among its trophies.

Billy Sidwell, another ranking Australian player, also is in the party. Among their baggage was a reserve supply of food to augment their diet in England while waiting for the Wimbledon Tournament in July.

Dinny Pails and Colin Long, other members of the Australian cup team, hope to fly to England next month.

Kwong Scores Twice

NEW YORK, March 24 (CP).—A pair of goals by Larry Kwong, young Chinese forward from Prince Rupert, B.C., enabled New York Rovers to wind up their local season with a 3-1 victory over Baltimore Clippers in an Eastern Hockey League play-off game.

Gil Dodds Wins Montreal Race

MONTREAL, March 24 (CP).—Gil Dodds, king of North American mile runners, set his own pace tonight to win the international invitation one mile run at a Canadian Legion indoor track meet here.

The bespectacled Boston parson who holds the world record for the distance and who established a Canadian mark of 4:10.6 minutes at Hamilton Saturday, raced around the board track in 4:18.8 minutes and was 75 yards ahead of second place Bill Berger of Columbia University at the finish.

Frank Dixon of New York University was third and Paul Fenton of McGill University, the only other finisher of the six starters, was fourth.

Stella Walsh, Polish-born speedster from Cleveland, met one of her rare defeats in the women's invitation 50-yard dash when Doreen Clough of Montreal overcame the former world champion's slight lead after 15 yards and remained in front to win by a stride. The time of 6.2 seconds was one-fifth of a second behind the world mark which Miss Walsh shares with a number of other runners.

Second Division Finish Possible For N.Y. Yankees

TAMPA, Fla., March 24 (AP).—It has been 22 years since a Yankee Ball Club finished in the second division, but those studying Bucky Harris' team this Spring say it might easily happen again if Joe DiMaggio's heel doesn't get well in a hurry.

Without their star centrefielder, it becomes painfully apparent, the Yanks are not going far.

For the first time since anyone can recall, the bombers hadn't a .300 hitter last year.

They have a couple of proven pitchers in Spud Chandler and Floyd Bevens, who won 20 and 16 games respectively last year. After that their mound corps drops off.

Rival club owners have long memories, and they aren't jumping over themselves to help the rich team from the Bronx that humiliated them for so many years.

Perhaps the best illustration of the fallen estate of the Yanks is the fact that Harris just has started giving 36-year-old George McQuinn a trial at first base. McQuinn hit only .225 for the Athletics last year.

Eagles, Varsity Clash Tonight

Provincial intermediate "B" champions last year, Gar Taylor's Eagles will attempt to take the first game for the Coast intermediate "A" crown when they tangle with Varsity in the feature tilt of tonight's three-game cage card at Victoria High School. The series will be a two-game total-point affair, with the second game tomorrow at the same gym. Game time each night is 9 o'clock.

Non-playing Manager Gordie Moore has lined up what he states is a strong squad for his Victoria cage referees' team which will take the floor at 8 p.m. in a novel preliminary contest against a team of Duncan arbiters.

Tonight's other preliminary set for 7 p.m. will bring together K.V. and Tillicum intermediate "B" teams.

FRENCH ELEVEN BLANKED

PARIS, March 24 (Reuters).—Wales beat hitherto unbeaten France by a penalty goal, 3-0, in a Rugby Union international match Saturday.

WESTS TO PRACTISE

Victoria Wests Football Club will hold a workout at Royal Athletic Park tomorrow at 7 p.m.

Canadiens Are Choice of Bookies

TORONTO, March 24 (CP).—You want to know which team will win the Stanley Cup? Every icesweeper around the National Hockey League circuit will give you a different answer and a survey shows that managers also shape up pretty well as loyal "homers."

So if you want to startle your friends as a prognosticator, consult the boys who stand to win or lose plenty of bucks by calculations—the bookies.

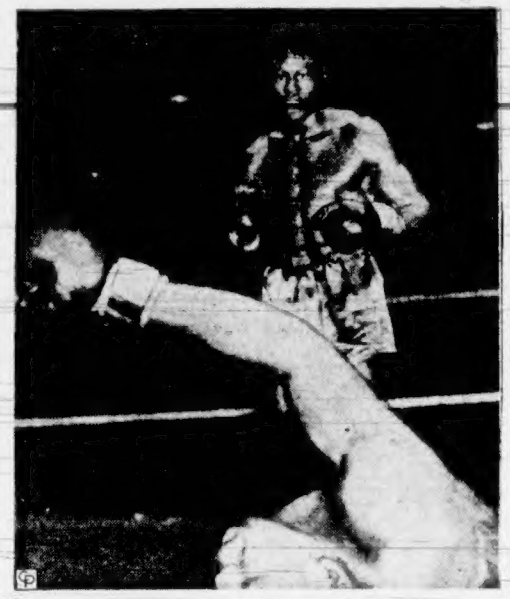
Such carryings on as gambling are generally illegal but the bookies will let you take your choice—at their figures—in either of the two series leading to the ancient mug. Their favorites are the present world champions, Montreal Canadiens.

It may sound complicated but the way the bookies figure it the Habitants are 7½ to 9 favorites to cop all the marbles. That is, they'll lay 7½ to 5 against the field and will take 9 to 5 if you want Canadiens against the pack.

Along the same lines of reckoning, the odds on the other three contenders winning the cup are: Toronto Maple Leafs, 2½ to 1 (odds bookie will lay)—3½ to 1 (odds bookie will take); Boston Bruins, 13 to 5—16 to 5; Detroit Red Wings, 5 to 1—6½ to 1.

In the preliminary series which open in Montreal Tuesday night and in Toronto Wednesday night, the betting boys will give you 8½ to 5 if you fancy Boston over Canadiens and if you like Detroit over the Leafs. But if you want to bet Canadiens over Boston or Leafs over Detroit you will have to lay 2 to 1.

Whammo! It's Curtains for Bivins



The right arm of Jimmy Bivins appears to be waving farewell to Ezzard Charles, Cincinnati light-heavyweight hope, as Bivins crashes to the canvas unconscious in the fourth round of their fight in Cleveland. The knockout, which was an upset as the heavier Bivins was favored, seems to surprise even Charles, judging by the look on the winner's face.

Canadians Draw 55 Irish Sweep Tickets

DUBLIN, March 24 (CP).—The great drum of the Irish Hospitals Sweepstakes, figuratively lined with gold, whirled and whirled again today. It spewed out numbers that mean sizable cash prizes for hundreds of persons the world over and fortunes scaling up to $100,000 for a fortunate few. Fifty-five Canadians were among them.

From 9.30 a.m. until 8 p.m. the huge cylinder spun. Each time a number was drawn, it means that somewhere in the world someone had won a horse in the Grand National Steeplechase that will be run over the famed Aintree course outside Liverpool next Saturday. The horse—if it runs—means a prize to the ticket holder of £84 ($336). If it runs and places first, second or third it will mean as much at £25,000 ($100,000).

This year the proceeds of the Irish Sweep were £2,146,000 ($8,584,000). The prize fund totaled £1,174,000, the remainder going to the Irish hospitals and administrative expenses. There will be 23 first prizes of £25,000 each, 23 of £10,000 each for those holding tickets on horses placing second, and 23 of £5,000 each for those with tickets on the third steeplechaser that successfully negotiates the stiff 4½-mile Aintree course.

Tickets were drawn for the original entry list of 74 horses, but 11 jumpers have been scratched and by post-time next Saturday only 60 horses are expected to start. To holders of tickets on horses that fail to face the barrier go £84, the same amount as to those who drew starters that failed to finish in the money.

No Canadian drew a ticket on Prince Regent, listed as the top favorite for a race in which pre-race "form" and betting odds don't mean a thing. But "Red Nose," holding ticket number BK31797, drew Lovely Cottage, last year's winner and for a time rated second favorite at 16 to 1 this year.

Portland to Play In Hoop Tourney

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24 (AP).—The Portland Indians, winners of regular play in the Pacific Coast Professional Basketball League, closed out the post-season playoffs with a 73-69 victory over the Seattle Blue Devils.

The Indians, who will represent the league in the National Professional Tournament opening at Chicago April 15, came from behind a 42-40 halftime deficit with big John Mandic of Portland totting up 21 points.

The contest was nip-and-tuck through the third period, but Portland never trailed through the final quarter.

In the play-offs Portland finished second to Bellingham, but Bellingham declined an invitation to the Chicago tourney.

California Teams To Fly to B.C.

BERKELEY, Calif., March 24 (AP).—The University of California basketball and Rugby teams will leave by plane Thursday night for Vancouver, B.C., for matches with the University of British Columbia.

The Rugby squad, not yet selected, will play the University and the British Columbia All-stars.

Ambling Alp Breaks Hand of Promoter

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., March 24 (AP).—Primo Carnera said good-bye here Sunday afternoon with a touch that will be remembered.

Escorted to the airport by George Cazana, wrestling promoter, whose physical proportions are almost in a class with the Ambling Alp's, Da Preeme gave such an enthusiastic farewell grasp that Cazana's hand was broken in two places.

Final Standings For N.H.L. Scoring Leaders

With the 1946-47 N.H.L. schedule finished, hockey-wise Max Bentley of Chicago Black Hawks, captured the individual scoring title for the second successive year, finishing one point ahead of Maurice Richard, Montreal Canadiens. Bentley picked up a goal and three assists during the week-end to end with a final total of 29 goals and 43 assists for 72 points against Richard's 45 and 26 for 71 points. Billy Taylor, Detroit, came third with 17 and 46 for 63 points, while Milt Schmidt, Boston, garnered 26 and 35 for 61 points for fourth berth.

The leaders:

	G	A	Pts.
M. Bentley, Chicago	29	43	72
Richard, Montreal	45	26	71
Taylor, Detroit	17	46	63
Schmidt, Boston	26	35	61
Kennedy, Toronto	28	32	60
D. Bentley, Chicago	21	34	55
Conacher, Detroit	30	24	54
Bauer, Boston	30	24	54

Clark Medalist At Gorge Vale

J. R. Clark won medalist's honors with a 77 in the qualifying round of the Gorge Vale Golf Club championship played on Sunday. Clark was three strokes ahead of F. L. Basanta, who finished with an 80.

The 16 low qualifiers among the 120 competing will make up the championship flight. Other qualifiers and scores follow: E. Barber, W. Neilson, R. Carroll and G. Gunniss, 81's; W. A. Bird and B. Fleming, 82's; C. Boden and L. Derman, 83's; P. Fanthorpe, A. Walker, R. Herbertson and R. Hoadley, 84's; and R. F. Cox and N. Morgan, 85's.

First round match play will be held this Sunday with the first match of the championship flight slated for 8 a.m.

New Diamond Loop Has Eight Entries

BELLINGHAM, Wash., March 24 (AP).—The newly-organized Northwest Baseball League has plans well under way today for opening of league play the second week of May.

All eight clubs in the new circuit have posted their forfeit money. Teams entered are Bellingham's Bells, defending state semi-pro champions; Seattle Gibsons, Lundeens of Snohomish, Vancouver, B.C., Everett, Mount Vernon, Oak Harbor and Sedro-Woolley.

Danish Athlete Ties University Record

LONDON, March 24 (AP).—Cambridge won the annual Oxford-Cambridge track and field meet yesterday, 68½ to 57½, largely on the record-tying double victory of Ivor Vind, a Danish student at Cambridge.

Vind won both the hugh jump, at 5 feet 11 inches, and the pole vault, with a leap of 11 feet, to become the second man in the history of the meet to win more than one event. The last double winner also was a Cambridge man, Godfrey Brown, a distance runners.

Retain Golf Buttons

Billy McColl and Vic Painter turned back a challenge for the city golf buttons by Gordon Verley and Bob Morrison, by winning Sunday's match at Colwood, 4 and 2.

Wests Victors In City Title Soccer Series

Soccer fans at Macdonald Park Sunday witnessed the second close tussle in city championship play when the Wests came from behind to edge Oak Bay, 2-1, on two second-half goals by big Charlie Restell. Wests received a bye and will oppose the winner of the Legion-Navy match Saturday for the title and possession of the Jackson Cup.

Oak Bay appeared headed for a surprise win when they held a good share of the play after Arnie Ferguson, centre forward, had scored their goal at the 15-minute mark of the first half on a first-time shot which caught the corner of the net. Wests had a number of golden opportunities to tie it up, Restell hitting the crossbar with the goalie out of position on one occasion.

The Greenshirts pressed hard in the early stages of the second half while the Bays' defence seemed a little less sure but it was not until the 20-minute mark that Restell was able to get in the clear to tie the score. Five minutes from time Barnswell booted a perfect corner kick which Restell headed in neatly for the winning counter.

Set Final Match For Junior Rugby Title Saturday

As the local Rugby season rapidly draws to a close only match scheduled for Saturday will be the second game of the total-point series for the British Columbia junior championship and the Gibbs Trophy between Vancouver Rep juniors and Victoria Crimson Ripples. Game is slated for Macdonald Park, at 2:30 p.m.

Although beaten 8-3 by the Mainland youths last Saturday at Vancouver, the Ripples put up a good showing and stand a good chance of taking the honors on their home ground.

Victoria Rugby Union at its meeting last night named J.B.A.A. seniors winners of the Cowichan Cup. Discussion was given to the matter of appointing a regular timekeeper for next season's senior games.

Reliability Test Won by D. White

Dave White, with a total of 942 points, won the Victoria Motorcycle Club reliability test over the week-end. Fifteen members competed in the event which took the riders over a tough 125-mile course and lasted from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Second was Bob Akins with 935, while third, fourth and fifth respectively, were Newt Cameron, Les Blow and Vic Redlick. The latter captured the riding ability honors.

Vic Ghezzi Wins Greensboro Open

GREENSBORO, N.C., March 24 (AP).—Broad-shouldered Vic Ghezzi, 1941 P.G.A. champion, playing out of Kansas City, Kas., put together rounds of 72 and 73 yesterday to win the $10,000 Greensboro open golf tournament with a 286 total, two over par for the 72 holes.

Amateur Frank Stranahan, of Toledo, who started the final 36 in the lead, finished with 288 after rounds of 75 and 73.

High Schools Set For Soccer Match

Boatmen Note Fishing Better

BRENTWOOD, March 24.—Boatmen reported grilse fishing good during the week-end, in fact the best since the beginning of the year after a long siege of poor catches. A few small salmon weighing up to 12 pounds were also caught.

Hugh Creed mentioned among other fishermen, Alan Pendray with ten, and Ralph Day with 12 grilse and [illegible] Catch reported by Harry Gilbert included Ron Smith and Tommy Alexander with 20, Chester Morris, Jack Saunders, Ivan Day and Tom McMillan with ten each, Capt. Chudley two salmon and three grilse, Arthur Hughes a six-pound spring and five grilse, and Dan Thomas and George Bridges two salmon and 15 grilse.

Harry Peard at the Anchorage said that Ben Good got nine grilse and several others came in with five or more. Maurice Atkins reported that Ivan May and party hooked 20 and others came in with good catches. Results from deep and surface lines were about equal and the fish were met all over Finlayson Arm and outside Brentwood Bay, but most of the small spring were picked up in Indian Bay.

Increase in Earnings

MONTREAL, March 24 (CP).—Canadian Pacific Railway Company today reported gross earnings of $6,070,000 for the week ended March 21, 1947, an increase of $149,000, or 2.5 per cent from the $5,921,000 total for the like week the previous year.

Finance—Commerce—Markets

Explains Lack Of Newsprint

In answer to inquiries regarding the present British Columbia newsprint situation, Harold S. Foley, president of the Powell River Company, has issued the following statement:

"Newsprint, like most other commodities has been in extremely short supply following the outbreak of the war. Since newsprint rationing ended in June, 1946, Powell River Company has managed to provide substantially increased amounts of newsprint to its British Columbia consumers.

"In this we were assisted by the Vancouver Sun, which provided approximately 1,000,000 feet of logs, and through the co-operation of our employees in working extra shifts.

"This increase has gone to British Columbia only. It is true British Columbia newspapers are not receiving all the newsprint they would like to have, but the same condition prevails in practically every other commodity.

"Here is a record of Powell River Company's performance in British Columbia, using the average prewar shipments in the years 1935-39 as an index of 100:

Period	Province	Van. Sun	Van. Papers	All B.C. Papers
1935-1938	100	100	100	100
1940-1945	120	114	128
1946	132	142	143
1947 (Estim'd)	131	156	146

"All the newsprint Powell River Company produces could not be used in this province. It is therefore necessary to market in other parts of the world. Newsprint is not sold on a day-to-day basis, but is sold on long-term contracts. It is impossible to divert newsprint which has been committed to other markets for long periods ahead under legal contracts to supply an unprecedented surge in demand in this province. Such action could only have a serious effect on our company, its employees and the welfare of a major industry of British Columbia.

"Powell River Company is now installing an additional newsprint machine which will amply take care of British Columbia but, unfortunately for all concerned, it cannot be brought into production overnight."

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, March 24 (AP).—Stocks, with scattered exceptions, returned to the losing side in today's market, although pressure was lacking throughout and dealings the slowest in more than eight months.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was off .3 of a point at 64.9. Of 904 issues registering, narrowest since March 31, declines were posted for 473 and advances for 220.

DOW JONES' AVERAGES
Thirty industrials, 176.40, off .87.
Twenty rails, 48.55, off .45.
Fifteen utilities, 36.70, off .04.

Montreal Stocks

MONTREAL, March 24 (CP).—After a mild flurry in opening deals, papers were generally fractionally improved on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market today. Balance of the list was quiet and narrow.

Better in papers were Abitibi preferred, up 1-2; Abitibi common, 3-8; Great Lakes and Price, even after previous gains, and Dryden, M. & O. and Donnacona, up 1-4 each.

In utilities Shawinigan was 1-8 better, and Winnipeg was down 1-4. Ford and tobacco advanced minor fractions in industrials. Nickel was off 1-8 after being ahead earlier. Imperial Oil added 1-8.

GANGES, SALT SPRING ISLAND
A beautiful waterfront home on the north shore of Ganges Harbor with a panoramic view of the islands and hills. The property consists of 9.8 acres of choice parklike land, and has 600 feet of waterfrontage with four private beaches.
The house, which has all modern facilities such as electric light, electric water supply and telephone, contains six bright rooms in beautiful condition. Living-room, approximately 20 x 21, has large open fireplace. Dining-room, three bedrooms, one with chimney, bathroom, kitchen and also a utility room and workshop. Surrounding the house are lawns and many varieties of flowering shrubs, lilac and fruit trees, bulbs, etc. Nearby are several attractive homes. There is a splendid boat service from both Vancouver and Victoria. Part of this property could be sold, leaving the house and two beaches at a greatly reduced cost. There are excellent schools, stores and churches on this increasingly popular Salt Spring Island, and we feel this property warrants your inspection.

Four Municipalities Seen Drawback To Public Ownership of Transport

Root of the difficulty in establishing public ownership of unified transportation system for Greater Victoria is that four separate civic governments must be dealt with, Ald. H. M. Diggon, transportation committee chairman, reported to the City Council yesterday.

This report was made on the instruction of the council which, at a recent meeting, told the committee to prepare a comprehensive statement of what public ownership would involve and to determine whether the B.C. Electric Railway would be willing to offer any concessions toward conclusion of a new franchise agreement.

He reported that the B.C. Electric had expressed willingness to enter negotiations with a Greater Victoria committee.

The committee was of the opinion, he said, that a large section of the public did not fully realize the delay that would be entailed and the obstacles that would have to be overcome before any type of public ownership, "good or bad," could be placed in operation.

REFERENDUM SEEN RIFFICULT

A referendum on the question could not be placed before the people until the December elections unless the council was petitioned by some 3,500 registered voters, he said. Even if this petition were to be forthcoming, the council would have to await further referendums in the adjoining municipalities.

Making the "unlikely" presumption that all the outlying municipalities would be will to hold a referendum on the question and the "even more unlikely" presumption that the people of each would vote in favor of public ownership, the task of setting such a system in operation would scarcely have begun, the chairman stated.

To begin with, Saanich had a franchise good until 1948, possibly five years longer, so that this large area would have to be left out of the picture.

If the people did, however, happen to favor public ownership, the next task would be to draw up a complete plan of operation suitable to each municipality and the amount of money which each would have to raise by borrowing. This would be far more difficult than the drawing up of specifications which resulted in the call for tenders last Autumn, Ald. Diggon said. He doubted whether a complete plan could be completed before 1948.

Money by-laws would then have to be sumitted to the people of Victoria, Esquimalt and Oak Bay, and would have to be approved by a two-thirds vote in each municipality, he pointed out, or the entire scheme would fall through. Until the money by-laws were approved, however, the committee or commission could not hire a man or order a piece of equipment.

CITES TASK OF BUILDING BUSINESS ORGANIZATION

"The task of building an entire business organization, the obtaining of technical experts of top calibre, the construction of buildings, is one which at the most generous estimate, could not be completed within one year," his report stated. "It would, therefore, be late in 1949 before we could proceed with construction and delivery of equipment according to plan.

"Your committee cannot make any guarantee of the type of service which would be offered at that time or of the fare structure which would obtain. All our calculations and researches have led us to the conclusion that, at least in the initial stages, we would be required to charge a fare higher than that in the B.C.E.R. franchise voted down [illegible] without loss."

The committee had reached the conclusion that, at the earliest, with everything going according to plan, some kind of service could be offered some time in 1949, Alderman Diggon said. "In the intervening period of two or three years our beloved street cars, presumably, will still be rollicking along our streets, with the result that our badly needed road repair program will be delayed for a similar period."

A minimum investment of $1,500,000 for rolling stock, buildings, repair and maintenance equipment, spare parts and sundries would be required, with no provision for operating capital with which to pay salaries and expenses in the initial period, Alderman Diggon said.

With present traffic, the system should produce an annual revenue of $860,000, with fares the same as in the B.C.E.R. franchise voted down last December (seven cents or four tickets for 25 cents). This estimate was determined from figures supplied by the Public Utilities Commission, Alderman Diggon said.

With expenses based on 31 cents a mile, compared to the national average of 34 cents a mile, revenue would be $852,800. This would mean a profit of $7,200, he pointed out, but made no provision for the fact that traffic on public carriers is expected to drop off as more private cars become available.

At the same time the city would be losing the $350,000 offered by the B.C.E.R. for the removal of street car tracks, $16,000 annually in property taxes and the 4 per cent of gross revenue, with a minimum payment of $35,000, to be shared by the four municipalities, Alderman Diggon pointed out.

The B.C.E.R., on the other hand, could operate more cheaply because its transportation business was a small part of its public utility business and the company was able therefore to distribute the costs of administration and expert technical staffs over a variety of enterprises.

There was nothing to prevent at least Victoria operating a publicly-owned system, Alderman Diggon said. The question was whether there was any need for it, when it was a matter of an unknown, experimental undertaking to be initiated two or three years hence or a definite contract for service under known conditions at present.

"We don't know what the B.C. Electric will give us," he stated, "but we feel we should find out before embarking on any other enterprise."

Plans to Help B.C. Fishing Are Questioned

C.C.F. members of the Legislature in the House yesterday demanded from Hon. L. H. Eyres a full explanation of the Government's plans to aid the fishing industry on this Coast under an act now before the House to raise fisheries administration to the status of a department.

Mr. Eyres, now commissioner of fisheries, will become minister under the new act.

Opposition Whip Herbert Gargrave (Mackenzie) said he hoped that under amendments to a series of acts called for under the plan the minister would get from the Federal Government greater authority over the industry in this province.

"We want to know what the Government's plans are to aid the fishing industry of British Columbia," said C.C.F. Leader Harold Winch.

"Very progressive plans," replied Mr. Eyres.

"What are they?" Mr. Winch persisted.

"You'll find out," replied the minister.

"You don't know," charged Mr. Winch.

Following a further exchange across the floor of the House, Mr. Gargrave asked for third reading of the bill to be stood over.

Sixteen-Month-Old Victoria Boy Dies After Accident on Street

Donald Hall, 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, 55 Oswego Street, died in St. Joseph's Hospital shortly after noon on Sunday from injuries believed to have been sustained when he was involved in an accident with an automobile on Oswego Street, city police reported.

An inquest into the accident, the third fatal mishap involving children of pre-school age in this area in just over a month, will be held at 10 a.m. today at Sands Mortuary Ltd., Coroner E. C. Hart said yesterday.

Responding to the call at 11:50 a.m. Sunday city police Constables William Elliott, Norman Bath, A. Appleton and Robert Mair took the injured child to hospital where he died at 12:10 p.m. Drs. J. M. Fowler and F. W. Arber, who attended at the hospital, said death was due to concussion and shock.

Police later questioned the driver of a milk truck in connection with the accident. He said he had made a delivery on Oswego Street shortly before noon but had seen or heard nothing unusual as he drove away. What were believed to have been newly-made marks were found on the right rear fender and bumper of the truck, police stated.

Last month two other small children died after accidents, police records indicated. The first accident occurred at 11 a.m. on February 20 and involved the 19-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Speedie, who succumbed to injuries received when struck by a milk truck in the driveway of his parents' auto court at Sidney.

The second happened at 4:30 p.m. the same day at the corner of John and Bridge Streets in the city. The victim was four-year-old Sherry Prior, 524 Bridge Street.

Inquests absolved both drivers of blame but juries recommended that playing space be allocated for children in each area.

City Police Court

Stanley M. Bouvette, Macaulay Camp, was fined $35 or in default six days in jail when he was convicted of dangerous driving on the Point Ellice Bridge on March 11. He also was prohibited from driving, except for business purposes, for a period of two months.

Three persons who failed to appear in city police court yesterday on charges of intoxication each had bail of $25 estreated.

Indian Chief To Speak Here

Chief Joe Capilano, who has won high honor in Texas for the contributions he has made to the art of the Lone Star State, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the British Columbia Indian Arts and Welfare Society here next Monday.

The meetin, which will be open to the public, will be held in the Provincial Museum at 8 o'clock, under the chairmanship of Mrs. A. J. Tullis, president of the society.

Chief Capilano, now working on the carving of a series of 30-foot totem poles for Texas, will speak on the story of the native tribes of British Columbia before the coming of the white man. A full-blooded Indian, he comes of a long line of chiefs, and his father attended the coronation of King Edward VII. He will be accompanied from Vancouver by his wife.

Portrait Entry in Camera Club Showing

Ken McAllister, local photographer, made this fine portrait study of Major R. E. M. Tasker Taylor, local artist. At the recent monthly showing of the Victoria Camera Club, it was awarded a tie for second place among outstanding works of portraiture.

Urge Government to Maintain Adequate Forces for Defence

A strongly-worded resolution urging that the Government, "with all due regard to the desirability," maintain the armed services "in such numbers and efficiency that this country may never again find itself totally unprepared and without substantial well-trained forces," has been drawn up by the Air Force Officers' Association of Vancouver Island.

Copies of the brief, it was reported yesterday by Miles Hague, president of the organization, will be sent to the Prime Minister, the Minister of National Defence, party leaders in the House of Commons, and to members for Victoria and Esquimalt.

In a preamble to the resolution it is noted the Government is planning "a further reduction in the personnel of the armed forces." Mention is also made of the fact plans for auxiliary R.C.A.F. squadrons across Canada have come to a sudden halt, with the result that "skills of thousands of men, gained at heavy expense in time and money, are now being wasted and forgotten."

It is noted that recent announcements of probable further curtailment in the numbers in the armed services "leads to uncertainty and undermines morale . . . and makes the services unattractive to young men to enter as a permanent career."

In defence of the resolution of his organization, Mr. Hague listed a number of arguments:

1. The armed forces offer attractive and useful careers to the youth of the land.

2. For many the unemployment difficulty would be solved if and when a depression comes again.

3. During times when the fighting services are not actively engaged in service training, they could be usefully employed in semi-civilian work such as surveys, policing, fisheries and customs patrols, and numerous other projects.

It is further noted that servicemen usually spend their pay freely in the immediate vicinities of their residence, subsequently stimulating business of the area.

Theft of Boat Brings Term At Hard Labor

Walter Duncan Taylor, 20-year-old Saanich youth who pleaded guilty last week of stealing a motor boat from the Inner Harbor here was sentenced to serve three months in jail at hard labor when he appeared before Magistrate Henry C. Halls in city police court yesterday.

In fixing the penalty Magistrate Hall said he had taken into consideration Taylor's youth and the fact it was his first conviction.

According to evidence in the case Taylor had taken the $23,000 former R.C.A.F. crash boat Pulmar, owned by Dexter Lewers, Cook Street, from a float in the harbor and driven it to Trial Island where it went aground after developing engine trouble.

He was picked up by the C.P.R. ferry Princess Joan early the following morning, wet through and suffering from exposure after ten hours on a make-shift raft on which he was attempting to reach Vancouver Island.

Year Is Sentence For Drill Theft

"Due to my past record I personally do not think I am worthy of much consideration," George C. Kennedy, who pleaded guilty of theft of an electric drill, told Magistrate Henry C. Hall in city police court yesterday morning.

He was sentenced to serve one year at hard labor for stealing the drill from David Spencer Ltd.

"I stole the drill. I went in there to steal it," accused continued.

"I know it is necessary to punish me, but I brought it on myself," he stated. He said that due to arthritis, from which he has been suffering for some time, he was unable to turn his head to see if he was observed at the time of the theft.

City Prosecutor Claude L. Harrison read a long list of previous convictions against the accused before sentence was passed.

Victoria Eagles Contest Winners

Eight officers of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Aerie No. 13, Victoria, took first honors in a ritualistic contest with officers of Aerie No. 31, this week-end in Bellingham, Washington.

A return match will be held in Victoria sometime in the future, it was announced. Wednesday, March 26, J. Washington, president of the will make his official visit to Aerie will make his official visit to Aerie, No. 12, during which time a large class of candidates will be initiated.

C.C.F. Hall Ransacked

Several women's suits and dresses were stolen by thieves who entered the dressmaking shop at 123 Pemberton Building over the week-end, city police reported yesterday.

Detective Angus Munro investigated and found entry was made by tampering with the lock on the front door. No value had been set yesterday on the merchandise stolen.

Fourteen dollars, a cigarette lighter and case were reported missing from an apartment at 1124 Dallas Road, which was entered through an unlocked window. All rooms in the basement suite were ransacked.

Four sacks of old peanut husks and personal papers were stolen recently from a houseboat owned by Edgar Hubbard, 331 Quebec Street, police were informed Sunday. The houseboat, located behind the C.P.S. mill on Store Street, had been entered within the past two weeks, Mr. Hubbard said.

Thieves ransacked the C.C.F. Hall, 857 Pandora Avenue, sometime Sunday afternoon, but took only four radio tubes, a police report stated. A window on the east side of the building had been forced, police said.

W. J. Kenton, manager of Kenton's, Ltd., jewelers, 653 Yates Street, told police yesterday that vandals had scratched "Kilroy Was Here" on a display window with a glass cutter or a diamond.

CH'IN FOR CHINA

The European world obtained the word China from the then ruling dynasty known as Ch'in.

Suppression of Social Diseases Aim of Bill Before Legislature

Tightening of provincial controls over venereal diseases is provided for in a bill introduced in the Legislature yesterday by Health and Welfare Minister G. S. Pearson.

Aimed at the suppression of social diseases, it will repeal earlier acts and extend the punitive authority of magistrates over infected persons who refuse to submit to treatment, providing in certain cases for imprisonment up to one year.

Under the new act, every infected person must either consult a physician, or, if without the means to do so, report to the medical health officer, who will arrange for treatment. Failure to report carries a fine of $25 to $100, or three months' imprisonment.

Wide powers will be given to the primary or secondary infections or exposures to infection, and require submission to examination or treatment.

Failure to submit to treatment under orders will carry a minimum penalty of seven days and a maximum of 12 months' imprisonment, and failure to continue treatment to the point where a clean bill of health can be given will render a patient liable to similar penalties."

Provision is made also for persons in arrest or custody to be required to undergo examination if the medical health officer is satisfied that such a course is necessary, and to remain in custody until results are known.

Secrecy is imposed on those administering the act, and prosecution hearings must be in camera.

B.C. Fishermen Increase Care Handling Catch

Prompted by their own interests, and being encouraged by fisheries departments, British Columbia fishermen are now giving serious attention to the manner in which fish are handled prior to their delivery to the consumer.

According to Department of Fisheries officials, more and more attention is being given to the care of fish from the sea to the retail store. It is emphasized that greater consumer acceptance builds up demand, which directly benefits the fishermen.

All persons in the commercial fishing industry are agreed on several suggestions directed at men in the fishing business.

To insure a more marketable fish, the men who catch them are now keeping their vessels as clean as possible; keeping fish out of the sun, putting the catch under ice immediately after landing, and avoiding undue rough handling of the fish to prevent cuts, bruises and punctures.

Coroner Holds Two Inquiries

Coroner E. C. Hart announced yesterday he had conducted an inquiry into the death of two-month-old Martin Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Grant, 156 Joseph Street, and found that death was due to accident. The baby was found dead in his crib on Saturday morning and is believed to have suffocated.

Death due to drowning was the finding announced by Dr. Hart following an inquest into the death of Peter Martin, whose body was found floating in the Inner Harbor on Friday.

Sitting Devoted To Many Bills

The Legislature yesterday in a two-hour sitting devoted entirely to consideration of bills, passed 23 through third reading, nine through second reading, stood over three on third reading, and gave first reading to one new bill.

Bills to amend existing acts given third reading were those relating to the following: Farmers' Land-Clearing Assistance Act, B.C. Loan Act, 1946, B.C. Loan Act, 1943, B.C. University Loan Act, 1945; Land Settlement and Development Act, University Endowment Lands Administration Act, Police and Prisons Regulation Act, Fire Marshal Act, Legal Professions Act, Mechanics' Lien Act, Municipal Cemeteries Act, Evidence Act, Administration Act, Curators Act, Savings and Loan Associations Act, Gasoline Tax Act, Poll Tax Act, Municipalities Aid Act, Mutual Fire Insurance Companies Act and the Highway Act.

Those given third reading setting up new acts were bills covering appropriation from surplus revenue account of $15,000,000 for highway construction under a three-year plan and of $2,860,000 to provide for compensation for municipalities in respect of direct relief costs, and borrowing of $5,000,000 for construction of new bridges.

DOES YOUR FIREPLACE SMOKE DUE TO "Downdraft"?
The Breidert Air-X-Hauster Chimney Top is the answer to your problem. Maybe your home is close to other buildings, near or between tall trees or other obstructions that create adverse air currents around your chimney top, thereby preventing your fireplace from functioning properly. Strong down currents off an adjoining hillside or high winds are often causes for trouble. Let a Breidert Air-X-Hauster chimney top turn these disadvantages into advantages. Remember, the Breidert Air-X-Hauster is totally new, totally different! No matter what your experience has been in the past, give this new principle a chance to work for you.

Freight Hearing Counsel Argue Over Rate Boosts

OTTAWA, March 24 (CP).—Opposing counsel at the Board of Transport Commissioners' freight rate investigation argued today over the permanency of rate increases sought by the Canadian railways.

Saskatchewan Counsel M. A. MacPherson's suggestion that the railways wanted increases on a permanent basis touched off a dispute, in which railway counsel denied the claim and one commissioner joined in to say the board had no power to make rates permanent.

At the time, Mr. MacPherson was cross-examining S. J. W. Liddy, assistant comptroller of the C.P.R., who had said the time for high rates was in periods of prosperity.

Asked who would reduce the rates when times grew bad, Mr. Liddy said he did not know.

"My point is that this application is for a permanent increase," Mr. MacPherson declared.

"No such thing," retorted Isaac Pitblado, chief railway counsel. The railways, he said, were asking for "just and reasonable" rates on the basis of present conditions.

Commissioner J. A. Stoneman interjected that the board could not grant permanent increases.

"And we would be foolish to ask for it," Mr. Pitblado agreed.

The Saskatchewan counsel replied that the present application for 30 per cent rate boosts did not cover only "a year or two." It was an application for an increase which, under the law, would remain in effect until it was changed.

"In that respect," he said, "it has an air of permanency."

Throughout the day, as the inquiry entered its seventh week, Mr. Liddy was under cross-examination by Mr. MacPherson and Wilson McLean, Manitoba counsel, on C.P.R. accounting methods, expenditures, reserves and other phases of its finances.

Mr. MacPherson asked about the work of the C.P.R.'s research department and wanted to know if it now was inquiring into any particular fields of economies.

The witness said the department was consolidating research work previously done by different branches of the company individually. There also was a co-operative committee for effecting joint economies with the C.N.R., but Mr. Liddy did not know of any economies con-

Municipal Briefs Of the District

Forty residents of Belmont Avenue between Pandora Avenue and Pembroke Street have petitioned the City Council to remove the majority of large boulevard trees on the street and to replace them with small flowering trees.

The Department of Labor has advised the City Council that nine new bargaining agents have been certified for the International Association of Firefighters, Local 730.

Twenty-two property owners in the district have petitioned the City Council asking the clearing of a lot at the northwest corner of Kings Road and Mount Stephen Avenue, claiming it is dangerous to children playing on the streets as well as a hazard to motorists.

Water consumption during 1946 averaged 13,316,000 gallons per day, an increase over the previous year of 246,000 gallons a day, according to the annual report submitted by the water board to the Public Utilities Commission. Number of customers supplied by meter inside the city increased by 406 for a total of 11,179, while those outside the city limits increased by 916 to a total of 13,418. Number of customers supplied without metering increased from 213 in 1945 to 229 last year.

Honor Member After Marriage

The Legislature's last remaining bachelor Coalition member, William D. Smith, from far northern Atlin, joined the ranks of the benedicts Saturday, when he was married in Vancouver to the former Miss Katherine Janet Watson of Prince Rupert.

Yesterday M. and Mrs. Smith were honored at a gathering in the Speaker's Office, when they were presented with a silver chopdish as a wedding gift from the sessional staff, from Sergeant-at-arms, Capt. W. R. Webster, down to the youngest page boy, The presentation was made by Capt. Webster.

At the end of the first day in the fourth week of the current Red Cross drive across Canada, campaign officials in Victoria reported that $61,265 had been collected. Victoria's objective is $65,090, with the national aim $5,000,000.

Meantime, Red Cross officials stress the continued need for volunteer blood donors to ensure a continued supply of free blood to the two hospitals in Victoria. Those wishing to contribute are asked to get in touch with officials at Red Cross Headquarters at 602 Broughton Street.

Law Described To Gyro Club

"It is better to let 20 guilty men escape punishment than to punish one innocent man," said George Gregory in an address to the Gyro Club yesterday at the Empress Hotel.

In an interesting talk devoted to law of Canada, Mr. Gregory outlined various procedures observed in criminal courts throughout the country.

He emphasized that laws of the land were aimed primarily at protecting the innocent. Citing a number of court cases, he drew attention to court regulations which tend to give the accused "every benefit of a doubt."

The principle of cross examination, he continued, was good. He stressed the value and importance of this court practice.

"Our system of law is the best," he added, "although it is not perfect."

Circumstantial evidence, self-confession, and other aspects of law also were dealt with by the speaker.

Boyer Asked Moscow Post

MONTREAL, March 24 (CP).—An explosives expert testified today that although Germany had started developing the high explosive RDX before the last war, Canada worked out a new method for its manufacture and a start was made on production in the Spring of 1941.

The evidence was given by Dr. James Hamilton Ross, who directed research on explosives at McGill University, Montreal, for the National Research Council. He was testifying at the trial of Dr. Raymond Boyer, facing a charge of having conspired to communicate information unlawfully to Russia.

Dr. Ross' evidence was given in English and translated for the French-speaking jury.

Antoine Rivard, K.C., one of the prosecuting attorneys, asked Dr. Ross whether Dr. Boyer had asked at any time for permission to communicate to other than any official persons any part of the work.

"No, I don't believe so."

"Did he even given any indication he had communicated any information to anyone else?"

"No."

Dr. Ross was asked whether a list of chemical materials which went into RDX was ever published by him in newspapers or magazines. He said it was not. Everyone at McGill connected with the work had taken an oath of secrecy.

Staff-Sgt. Edward Chamberlain, of the R.C.M.P., a Crown witness, produced copy of a letter said to have been written by Dr. Boyer offering his services as an observer in Moscow to Dr. E. H. Coleman, undersecretary of state, after the start of the war.

The letter said that after his return from studies abroad the writer had joined the Civil Liberties' Union and also had come in contact with leaders of the Communist party. It added: "I enjoy their confidence to some extent although at no time have I been a member of that party."

Indians to Appear In Full Regalia

As in other years, one of the highlights of the May 24 parade this year will be the entries from Island Indian tribes in full regalia, it is announced by the Fraternal Order of Eagles parade committee.

Mrs. Charles Wilson will act as judge of the parade entries, and her appointment completes the list of judges for the occasion.

[illegible] issued last week, it is reported, several firms in the city have promised to donate trucks for use as floats. However, still more trucks will be needed. Those wishing to aid are asked to get in touch with the Eagles' secretary.

$1,500 Bail Set In Police Court

William Hansen, New England Hotel, was remanded for one week when he appeared in Esquimalt police court yesterday on charges of forgery and uttering a forged document. Bail was set at $1,500.

Charged with dangerous driving as the result of an accident on Lampson Street Saturday night, Mrs. Alicia R. Painter also was remanded for one week.

Three motorists paid fines of $10 each for exceeding the speed limit through school zones, and a fourth was fined $15 for exceeding the 30-mile-per-hour speed limit.

ABITIBI REPORTS PROFIT

TORONTO, March 24 (CP).—Abitibi Power & Paper Co., Ltd., reported profits for the year 1946 were $5,800,205, of which $1,453,652 was realized during the first four months of the year while the company was under receivership. The latter amount was credited to deficit account at the termination of receivers on April 30, and the remainder, $4,146,552, was realized from operations under the present management and was credited to earned surplus.

Court to Suspend Sentence Here On Suicide Charge

Called out of the "tragic aftermaths of war" by defence counsel Jack Buttan, the story of a young R.C.A.F. veteran's attempt to commit suicide, after returning from overseas to discover his wife would no longer live with him, was told in city police court yesterday.

Taking the witness stand during his trial on the charge of attempting to commit suicide, the young man testified he was married over three years ago, when he was 19 and his wife was 17 years of age. They lived together only six weeks before he went overseas, he said.

On his return to Canada after a tour of operations with the R.C.A.F. over Germany he said his wife would have nothing to do with him in spite of his numerous attempts to effect a reconciliation.

He then took a job in Vancouver and until recently had not seen his wife for a year-and-a-half, it was stated. On the night of the suicide attempt he said he tried to see his wife but she refused even to talk to him.

Magistrate Henry C. Hall told the accused he was prepared to suspend sentence and remanded the case until today for consideration of the terms of the suspension.

Plan Funeral Services Here on Wednesday

Funeral services for William S. Brown, 68, who died suddenly Sunday at his home, 39 Lewis Street, will be held at Thomson Funeral Home, Wednesday at 1:30 p.m.

Born in London, England, Mr. Brown came to Victoria in 1899 with the Royal Navy. For 25 years he was an insurance agent in Victoria and for the past 13 years he was the Canadian Government annuities representative in Victoria, secretary of Britannia Lodge No. 73, A.F. & A.M., for 25 years, and a past patron of Queen City Chapter No. 5, O.E.S.

He was a veteran of the Great War, serving with 102nd Battalion, C.E.F.

Rev. Emma M. Smiley will officiate at the service and cremation will be at Royal Oak.

Police Establish $150 Scholarship

KAMLOOPS, March 25—Creation of an annual scholarship at Kamloops High School sponsored by "C" Division of the B.C. Provincial Police was announced here this week by Inspector E. Gammon, division head.

The scholarship will be established in memory of two policemen—Insp. W. J. Service and Const. Percy Carr—who were killed in the course of their duties some years ago.

Each scholarship will have an annual value of $150 and will be open to Grade 12 students at Kamloops High School. Under exceptional circumstances, the awards may be made to Grade 11 or Grade 13 students.

Purpose of the awards, it was stated, is "to further the education of students who give promise of outstanding service to Canada as Canadians."
